

BOMB SUSPECT UNABLE TO TELL OF MOVEMENTS

U. S. Secret Service Gets Nothing From Zelenaka About Whereabouts on Day of Wall Street Explosion.

STICKS OF DYNAMITE FOUND IN SUITCASE

Zelenaka Is Held at Pittsburgh—His Home Address Is Brooklyn and New York Detective Are Probing His History.

Washington, October 4.—Department of justice agents at Pittsburgh reported tonight that Florian Zelenaka, arrested as a suspect in connection with the Wall street explosion in New York, had been unable to account for his movements on the day of the explosion, or for seven sticks of dynamite which he admitted having had in his possession.

The message to the department of justice was sent after Zelenaka had been questioned by federal agents. It said that he had admitted having twelve sticks of dynamite, which he said he had obtained at Whitman, W. Va. When he was arrested there were but five sticks in his suitcase and federal agents reported he had not been able to tell them what he had done with the other seven.

Zelenaka also had been unable to explain satisfactorily his reasons for purchasing the explosive, the message said.

ZELENAKA GRILLED BY FEDERAL AGENTS

Pittsburgh, October 4.—Florian Zelenaka, who was arrested here last night with a quantity of dynamite percussion caps and fuse in his suitcase, was sent back to the city prison tonight after the department of justice, where he was closely questioned during the afternoon regarding his movements for the past several months.

The questioning, department of justice agents said, would be resumed tomorrow.

Meantime government agents in Logan county, West Virginia, and in Cincinnati, were tracing Zelenaka's movements in order to see whether they agree with the story he had told during the afternoon. Zelenaka told the federal agents on the day of the explosion he was working as a tailor for the Wilmer Clothing company at Brookway street and Rosedale avenue, Brooklyn.

Soon afterward, Zelenaka told the agents he obtained employment with the Island Creek Coal company at Whitman, Logan county, West Virginia, and left New York September 24 for that place. After working a few days as a coal loader he gave up his job and went to Cincinnati. From there he came to Pittsburgh. He said he had bought the explosives for use in his work as other miners did, and having it on hand when he quit, he took it with him.

Zelenaka is a Pole, who, according to his story, came to this country in 1914. He speaks English and Polish to be understood, but much of his questioning today was in his own tongue.

The dynamite found in Zelenaka's suitcase was turned over to the Pittsburgh station for the bureau of mines, where engineers pronounced it as "No. 2," the kind ordinarily used in mining operations.

Home Address Brooklyn. Zelenaka, the police declared, had told a fellow-passenger on a Pennsylvania train from Cincinnati, yesterday, certain things which prompted him to believe that he might know something about the explosion in Wall street, New York, September 16. They questioned him closely, and developed that his home address was Brooklyn.

To newspaper men, Zelenaka said he obtained employment with the Island Creek Coal company, at Whitman, W. Va., and left New York September 26 for that place. There, he said, he was employed in a mine as a coal loader, but after working four days found he was physically unfit for such labor, and giving up his job, went to Cincinnati. While in Whitman, he said, he purchased the explosive and fuse to use in the mines and when he left packed it in his suitcase, where it had been since that time.

In Cincinnati, Zelenaka said, he was unable to find employment, and decided to come to Pittsburgh. He admitted meeting a man who gave the name of Leon Konkell, and denied telling him he had dynamite in his suitcase. Arriving in Pittsburgh, Zelenaka said, he went to the St. Charles hotel, to which place Konkell went also. While staying in the hotel, he said, he entered unexpectedly and saw the dynamite. He then told Konkell he was taking it to New York.

Authorities Reticent. Police officials said they were unable to decide whether Zelenaka was simply a miner carrying explosives with him, as do many miners traveling in the coal country, or whether a more serious charge should be placed against him.

Authorities were reticent as to the result of their questioning, but it was claimed, close Zelenaka furnished may lead to scores of arrested.

Probe of Food Prices Charged in Restaurants And in Stores Ordered

Fruit Stands Also Included in the Resolution Passed at Meeting of City Council Monday Afternoon.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE WILL BE APPOINTED

Mayor Key Announces That One Member Will Be a Woman—Unreasonable Prices Are Alleged by Councilman Martin.

Sweeping investigation of alleged profiteering by Atlanta restaurants, stores selling foodstuffs, and stands selling fruits, was authorized Monday afternoon by city council, and by unanimous vote the mayor was requested to appoint a special committee, composed of three members of general council and two citizens, to probe the prices being charged at these places.

The resolution calling for the committee was introduced by Councilman Al Martin, himself a cafe proprietor, who announced that unreasonable margins or profit, on being made at the public eating places of the city; by some of the wholesale and retail stores that handle foodstuffs, and at the fruit stands.

Says Prices Are Similar. Mr. Martin has already called public attention to the striking similarity in prices for food served at a number of restaurants and it is expected that one angle of the inquiry will be directed toward an explanation of this fact. Mr. Martin also prepared to ask the committee to inform him of the effect that the prices being charged at fruit stands are so far out of proportion to the wholesale price as to be grossly exorbitant.

Mayor Key said that the matter of a food inquiry is important and he wished to put some study on the selection of a committee to conduct the probe. He stated, however, that he will name as one of the members a woman. "Women are as vitally interested and concerned as the men," said the mayor. "They are also prepared to do their share in the investigation, and I have already made up my mind to appoint a woman on the committee."

Will Name Committee. Today, or probably tomorrow, the mayor will have had sufficient time, it is thought, to select with the city council, the members of the committee. The committee is then expected to announce a hearing as one step in the investigation. After a full inquiry recommendations will be made to council.

According to Councilman Martin, the purpose of the committee is not following the prevailing tendency in other lines to revert toward a pre-war level. He asserts that substantial reductions on many commodities in the list of foodstuffs can be made and still leave a good margin of profit on each of these articles.

RIGHT TO BALLOT DOESN'T QUALIFY WOMEN FOR JURY

Raleigh, N. C., October 4.—Women are not liable to jury duty by virtue of the nineteenth amendment to the federal constitution, according to an opinion by Attorney General Manning. The attorney general ruled today that the right to vote plays no part in the qualifications of a juror and that it will require a legislative act to impose the liability of jury service upon women.

Runover Voting Precincts.

Voting precincts for the governor's race in Wednesday's run-over primary were announced Monday afternoon by Claude C. Mason and C. N. Allen, of the subcommittee of the Fulton county executive committee. They are as follows:

Eleventh Ward—27 Stovall street.

PRICE OF CEMENT HITS TOBOGGAN

Direct Drop of $3.50 Per Barrel Places It Within Eighty Cents of Pre-War Value.

That cement, one of the most essential items of construction in the building of business houses, homes and highways, has hit the skids from its high war levels and is now ready for distribution in carload lots at the rate of $4 per barrel, f.o.b. Atlanta, was the announcement Monday of J. T. deJarnette, president of the deJarnette Supply company, of Atlanta.

This is a direct drop of $3.50 per barrel, according to Mr. deJarnette, and is within 80 cents of the level at which cement was selling prior to the war.

"The pre-war price of cement was $7.50," Mr. deJarnette stated, "at which time the mills were paying $1.50 for coal, which they bought, of the sacks, making the net price at now paying $10 per ton for the same coal. And yet the big drop in cement would seem to me to have been made at one time for the entire year. I do not look for another drop during 1920, and am satisfied that the price of other items of building material will have been readjusted by the time they are needed by builders who start operations at this time."

Leads to Contracts. "My company," Mr. deJarnette explained, "represents the Dixie Portland Cement company, of Richmond, Tenn., and the National Cement company, of Ragland, Ala. The former company did not run at more than one-half capacity, and put every barrel it produced on the market during 1920. As low-price contracts. The National is a new company which has just started producing cement and entering the market now and unhampered by contracts of any kind, has literally flattened the market out."

"It has brought the price of cement down from $7.50 per barrel to $4 per barrel in carload lots f.o.b. Atlanta, and included in this price is a rebate of 25 cents per barrel for each of the four sacks per barrel, which $1 is paid upon the return of the sacks, making the net price $3.75 per barrel."

"The mills have acted squarely with the public, and in trying to stimulate building, have flattened out the market absolutely."

"Other lines of building material will naturally be forced to follow suit. This, I believe, should start a big building boom, not only in the erection of homes and building structures of all kinds, in which cement is used, but also in road construction throughout the state."

"Building of homes and business places has been held up for a long time. The drop in cement will start construction work again."

Ten Car Loads a Day. Mr. deJarnette stated that his company is prepared, beginning immediately, to place cement on sale at this reduced price at a rate of ten car loads a day. He adds that he has an unlimited supply from which to draw.

Characterizing the reduction in cement prices as "an important drop," officials of the state highway department Monday explained that it came too late to have any effect on road building under the direction of the department during 1920.

"The reduction is not likely to make any great change this year," the statement said, "as all 1920 road work has been planned. This year the department will have all concrete paving possible because of the high price and scarcity of cement, and in as many cases as was possible, it used a different class of material. Cement has been going steadily downward for thirty days, and the drop in its market price is a very important one."

TWO ARE ARRESTED WHEN AUTO RUNS AMUCK ON WALTON

R. E. Hogan, of 279 Windsor street, and Wade Mills, of 774 Leikin street, were placed under arrest by Patrolman Tony Lyman Monday morning, following a collision between the heavy touring car in which they were riding and three automobiles that were parked on Walton street in front of the Samuel building.

The machines Hogan and Mills are said to have struck belong, according to the police, to Dr. J. King, of 224 Peachtree circle; Grady Pruitt, of Alpharetta, and W. E. Dupree, of 414 East North avenue. All three cars were damaged considerably.

After striking the parked machines the automobile containing Hogan and Mills was wrecked against a brick wall further down the street. Both men are alleged to have been under the influence of whiskey.

INTENSIVE DRIVE PLANNED BY COX IN SEVEN STATES

Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, West Virginia, New York, New Jersey and Maryland to Be Chief Battle Ground.

CANDIDATE CONFERS WITH PARTY CHIEFS

And Plans Are Adopted for Completion of Campaign—Woman Delegation Hears Cox Discuss the League.

Dayton, Ohio, October 4.—Plans for completion of the democratic national campaign now declared by leaders to be entering its last stages were being formulated here today by Governor Cox, National Chairman George W. Cox, Pat Harrison, chairman of the national speakers' bureau, and E. H. Moore, the governor's pre-convention manager. The conference was held at the governor's country home.

As a result of the conference, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, West Virginia, New York, New Jersey and Maryland probably will be the chief battle ground until election, according to Senator Harrison, though all details have not yet been worked out. Governor Cox will spend four days campaigning in his home state, three days in Indiana, one day in West Virginia, one in New Jersey, and most of two days in Illinois. Night meetings have been arranged at Akron and Toledo, for the 28th and Chicago for the 29th. It was announced that the governor would speak in Baltimore, the date for the meeting not having been decided.

Speeches in Ohio. The governor's first speeches in his home state during 1920 will be made at Van Wert, Lima and Bellefontaine, with a night meeting either at Springfield or Dayton, his home city. The next day will find him at Detroit and then again Ohio, with a noon speech at Akron and a night speech in Cleveland, spending Sunday at the capital, where he will go to New York state, where, on the 18th, he will speak at Rochester and Buffalo at night. Two days will be spent in New England, and he will speak at Madison and Square Grove, New York on the night of the 23d.

On next Wednesday evening the swing into Kentucky, Tennessee, Indiana and Illinois will begin, reaching the most extreme western point at St. Louis, where the governor will speak on the night of October 11, swinging back toward Ohio, through Indiana and Illinois, on the 12th and 13th.

The democratic candidate spent most of today resting at his home, "Trail's End." During the day he received a delegation of women, headed by Mrs. Florence Kelly, general secretary of the National Consumers' league, and Mrs. Maude Wood Park, chairman of the National League of Women Voters, who discussed with him questions pertaining to children's welfare and other subjects in which the two organizations are interested.

Cox Speaks to Women. The governor also talked to them on phases of the league of nations, particularly why women should be interested in its adoption.

On most of the questions presented by the women, especially child welfare and the Kenyon child storage bill, Governor Cox told them he had stood for such reform for twelve years and that Ohio had been a leader to those they sought nationally.

In his address Governor Cox went into considerable detail why women should support the league cause, asserting that throughout the years they have been "the leaders of progress in the world" and declaring that wrath of the women who were made to suffer in the war will pursue Franz Joseph, William Hohenzollern and Nicholas Romanoff, "through all eternity."

Though asserting that he direct cost of the war, monetary and indirect, was $200,000,000,000, it was the women, Governor Cox declared, who know what the war really cost, "for they paid the price in personal suffering to provide the rulers of the earth with 10,000,000 men, which were thrown into the gauges of battle to placate the anger of the gods of war."

DOG GIVES BATTLE TO THREE "COPS" FOR HIS MASTER

Mobile, Ala., October 4.—A dog fought three policemen in the street here today when they went to arrest his master for being intoxicated in a public place. The three officers were so badly bitten by the dog that they had to have medical attention. The dog was finally beaten off and the man arrested.

106 Cornell Men Guilty of Fraud In Their Exams

Rumors of Wholesale "Cribbing" by Many Students Are Officially Verified.

Ithaca, N. Y., October 4.—A total of 106 Cornell students have been found guilty of fraud in their June examination by the committee of student affairs, it was officially announced tonight. Rumors of wholesale "cribbing" by many students had been circulated recently and were verified officially today by the public announcement of the disposition of the cases by the university authorities.

Of the 106 men "tried" by the committee, nine were exonerated and the degree of one was withheld until after September of this year. Of the men found guilty, 75 were dismissed from the university for a year, but this judgment was suspended and the men have been permitted to return to the university this fall on parole. Three others were suspended and one dismissed permanently. Another case is to be passed upon by the authorities.

This is the first time in the history of Cornell that fraud has been dealt with on such a large scale. Information was obtained from examination papers by certain students, who, it was charged, imitated the contents to a large number of men students, mostly members of the freshman class, before the examinations were held.

ASK KEY TO SIGN HEAT CONTRACT

Council Passes Resolution, Calling Upon Mayor to Take Action, Introduced by Councilman Woodall.

By unanimous vote, city council adopted a resolution Monday afternoon calling on Mayor Key to introduce a resolution to sign the 1920-21 contracts with the steam-heating department of the Georgia Railway and Power company to furnish heat at the city hall, the police and fire stations and Carnegie library.

At the expiration of the old contracts this year, the company submitted new ones, in which the rates for steam heat service were exactly double those of last year. The mayor declared that this was an excessive and unjustified increase and refused to approve the contracts.

Winter is approaching, and the municipal employees face the prospect of shivering at their work. Councilman Fred C. Woodall introduced a resolution which he pointed out that "the exceedingly high price of coal and other material used by the city, which in many instances cost four or five times as much as twelve months ago, has made it necessary for the city to increase its revenue by raising its water rent on two different occasions, and its schedule of license from 20 per cent to 200 per cent."

The increase in the cost of producing steam for heat, asserted the resolution, is as great as the increase required to operate the waterworks machinery, and the mayor is requested to affix his signature to the contracts. There was no discussion following the motion to adopt the paper.

Fifty-Third Day Without Eating For MacSwiney

Weak, But Still Conscious. Lord French's Sister Visits Mayor's Wife and Denounces the Government's Policy.

London, October 4.—Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, passed a fair night at Brixton prison, having had several hours' sleep, but it does not seem to have refreshed him much, said a bulletin issued this morning by the Irish Self-Determination league. Doctors do not find much change in the condition of the lord mayor except that he is very weary, the bulletin adds.

This is the fifty-third day of MacSwiney's hunger strike.

A bulletin issued at the home of the lord mayor stated the lord mayor was not so well yesterday, but after a sleep last night appeared to be better this morning.

The condition of Lord Mayor MacSwiney is unchanged, according to the bulletin issued by the Irish Self-Determination league at (Continued on Page 15, Column 2.)

MASKED BANDITS ROB 45 PERSONS IN NEW YORK CAFE

New York, October 4.—Six masked bandits entered a cafe in Lenox avenue early today, lined up forty-five patrons against the wall and escaped with cash and jewelry estimated at more than $5,000. Four of the robbers covered the patrons with revolvers while the others emptied the victims' pockets.

All of the bandits escaped by fleeing over several roofs and down a fire escape, except one, who went directly into the street and when confronted by a police officer, ran into a subway station, jumped to the roadbed and raced ahead of an on-coming train.

WALKER LEADERS SURE OF SUCCESS IN FULTON COUNTY

Plans for Wednesday's Primary Made at Enthusiastic Meeting of Supporters Held Monday Evening.

WALKER TIDAL SWEEP PREDICTED BY DOZIER

Former Holder Men in This County Are Now for Former Attorney General, Declares John Y. Smith.

With an enthusiastic audience, composed of representatives from every ward in Atlanta and each voting precinct of Fulton present in the Walker headquarters Monday night final plans for carrying this county for Clifford Walker in Wednesday's primary were completed, while his election throughout the state by a safe majority was predicted by a number of his supporters from north and south Georgia.

Presiding over the meeting, which was termed by several prominent men as the most representative and earnest political gathering they had ever attended, Colonel E. E. Pomerooy declared that after a careful survey of each voting precinct, he was satisfied the former attorney general would carry Fulton county by a large majority and that each man present had agreed to work in his interests.

Are Strong for Walker. Claude Ashley, councilman from the fourth ward, said the people of his section of the city "are strongly behind Walker and will give him 90 out of every 100 votes cast." He also predicted that the state would go for the former attorney general tomorrow.

One of the strongest speeches of the meeting was made by A. P. Greene, president of the Machinists' union, who declared he was an enthusiastic Walker supporter and predicted that many labor men would vote for Hardwick in the election tomorrow for Walker.

Describing the candidacy of Thomas W. Hardwick as an effort to split the democratic party in Georgia, Alfred Newell, prominent Atlanta insurance man, declared he was "up to every corner" to help man to defeat the efforts of such a candidate. Judge C. H. Girardeau paid a high compliment to the manner in which Walker has conducted his campaign, stating that he was a "clean, high-toned gentleman who has had everything disabused to combat during this race."

Holder Men for Walker. John Y. Smith, a former Holder man, stated he knew the "Holder men in this county, and I am confident they are absolutely behind Walker. The former Holder man, who is a right-thinking and conservative democrat and from the reports I have received fully eighty per cent of the Holder support will be found behind Walker Wednesday."

William Neel, of the fifth ward, reported that the impression which is being created by the Hardwick headquarters that the Smith men are lining up behind Hardwick is absolutely false. In speaking of the situation in his ward, he said Walker was clearly in the lead, and according to reports he had received from all sections of Fulton, he would easily be the winner in the second primary.

A. J. Thomas, of Wayne county, made a short speech in which he said his county would be found in the Walker column, and that the situation in surrounding counties was the same, while Walker men from a number of other sections of the state declared the former attorney general had gained strength over Hardwick during the last few weeks of the campaign.

WOMAN IS GIVEN PLACE OF SHERIFF IN NORTH CAROLINA

Pittsboro, N. C., October 4.—Miss Myrtle Siler, of Pittsboro, today was appointed sheriff of Chatham county by the board of county commissioners to succeed Sheriff Leon T. Lane, resigned. Immediately after her appointment, Miss Siler filed the necessary bond and took the oath of office, the first woman to hold such a position in North Carolina.

All Legitimate Aid To Cotton Growers By Reserve System

COUNCIL IS ASKED TO ASSIST IN WAR AGAINST SPEEDERS

Resolutions Calling for Additional Policemen and Heavy Penalties for Speed Violations Introduced.

PARKING ORDINANCES MODIFIED FOR SUNDAY

Agreement Is Reached to Settle $5,000 Suit for Crematory Plant Steam for $250.

Steps to aid in the war against speeders, modification of the traffic ordinance permitting vehicles to park on all downtown streets on Sundays, and an agreement to settle on payment of $250 a suit filed by the city for the sum of $5,000 against the Atlanta Gas Light company for steam the company is alleged to have obtained from the city crematory plant, were features of council meeting Monday afternoon.

Council was asked to create the office of traffic lieutenant, this officer to be placed, in charge of a special traffic squad; to vote funds with which to employ twenty extra men on the police force to be detailed to traffic duty, and to provide an appropriation for the purchase of ten automobiles to be used by the traffic force. The matter was referred to the finance committee which will consider the request at its next meeting.

Favors Heavy Penalties. A resolution by Councilman W. R. Buchanan to impose heavy penalties on drivers who exceed a speed of 20 miles an hour in the outer fire limits, and 12 miles an hour within the inner fire limits, was referred to the ordinance committee.

While the traffic ordinance was modified with respect to Sundays allowing parking on that day on barred streets, the non-parking zone was extended by the addition of a turn around, between Butler and Bell streets. Proposed amendments to add Equitable place, between Edgewood and Ivy street; the west side of Cone street, from Luckie to Poplar, and to repeal an amendment making Mitchell street a one-way street, non-parking, were referred to the ordinance committee.

Wheat Futures Tumbling Down To Low Levels

Decline of 10 to 12 Cents a Bushel in Principal Markets—Flour Also Drops.

Chicago, October 4.—Wheat futures declined 10 to 12 cents a bushel today in the principal grain markets of the west, in some cases touching low levels not before reached since the government established the war-time wheat price.

December deliveries closed in Chicago and St. Louis at $1.95 to $1.95 1/2, and at Kansas City a level was reached in $1.91. At Minneapolis, where the market was closed, it was at an even $2, a drop of 1 1/2 cents from Saturday.

March options closed at Chicago, $1.91 to $1.91 1/2; at Kansas City, $1.87 1/2; at St. Louis, $1.92 1/2, and at Minneapolis, $1.93.

Declines in wheat were reflected in new flour quotations from Minneapolis, where recessions of 60 cents a barrel since Friday were reported by two mills, bringing flour to $11.30 and $11.55 a barrel in quarter-barrel sacks.

Corn and oats, likewise, touched new low levels, equaling quotations of 1916 and 1917 for the December options. December corn closed today in Chicago at 85 1/2 and 86, compared with $1.21 six weeks ago, corn at that time reached $2.10.

Oats established new low records in both December and May deliveries, closing at 55 and 59c on the board. In May of this year May options went as high as $1.08 1/2.

Lack of export demand and free Canadian offerings are given as causes of the decline in wheat, and corn and oats are reflecting the weak situation.

18 Cents, 16-Cent Loss. Greenville, S. C., October 4.—The 18-cent, 16-cent bread loaf made its appearance here today for the first time since the beginning of the war, when a local bakery announced a cut of 2 cents a loaf from 18 cents.

Secretary Houston and Governor Harding Give the Assurance to Senator Smith, of South Carolina.

BANKS AND MERCHANTS URGED TO CO-OPERATE

Senator Smith Says If This Is Done the Problem Will Be Solved. Houston Not Opposed to Cotton Export Corporation.

Washington, October 4.—Senator Smith, of South Carolina, issued a statement tonight saying he had conferred today with Secretary Houston and Governor Harding, of the federal reserve board, and been assured that the federal reserve system would "lend all legitimate aid in redoubling the paper based on cotton sent in by member banks."

The senator's statement said his conferences had been prompted by conflicting reports as to what had transpired at a recent meeting between representatives of the American Cotton association and treasury officials. Governor Harding, it added, had reiterated to the senator what he said to the cotton men while Secretary Houston denied that he was opposed to the formation of export corporation by the cotton association.

"It was stated," the statement continued, "that there was an inordinate demand for credits from practically every line of business in America; that our export business was being almost entirely financed by American credits on account of the unsatisfactory conditions of foreign exchange, these conditions resulting in an unprecedented drain upon the financial resources of the country, the federal reserve system included."

Senator Smith suggested a lower discount rate for farmers owing to the time required for production of a marketable crop and said Governor Harding had promised to take the matter under advisement.

"Let the southern banks and merchants continue to co-operate with the farmers as they have been doing," the senator's statement continued, "and the problem will be solved. The world is in a very bad state of cotton that is produced and marketed. The south should not be stampeded, but steadfastly demand her price and get it."

WARNED TO QUIT GINNING COTTON IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Anderson, S. C., October 4.—Warnings to cease ginning cotton until the staple "brings 35 cents a pound" were found posted on the doors of several gins in Anderson and Oconee counties this morning.

Some of the notices were typewritten and were affixed to the doors with matches. The notices followed the receipt by local newspapers of letters signed "The Black 75," saying that 75 men had taken oaths to burn gins that continue to gin cotton.

One ginner in this vicinity had closed down today. Others said they would continue operations.

Do you get 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline?

Do you get 12,500 miles to the set of tires?

Are you able to cover all roads easily and safely?

Does your car depreciate so slowly that it has a high resale value?

How These Things Determine Whether Your Motor Car Qualifies As An Investment

GASOLINE MILEAGE, tire mileage, road-ability, depreciation—these four factors measure motor car service.

For today, more than ever before, the buying of an automobile is a matter of wise investment.

These four factors are important—gasoline mileage, because gasoline wastage must be ended; tire mileage, because with most cars that is the largest single item of upkeep; road-ability, because upon it depends your comfort and peace of mind; depreciation, because that is a sure index to reliability and car life.

Franklin results in these respects are a matter of record.

For eighteen years the Franklin has won practically every prominent economy run held. Its tires last two years, on the average.

It has established unequalled road records both in time between definite points and in distance within a definite time. And its slow depreciation is attested by the scarcity and high values of used Franklins everywhere.

Owners' averages of Franklin performance are quoted below:

Leaving for Reunion, Haygood Asks Friends To Vote for Walker

A. J. Haygood, second lieutenant of the Confederate army, commanding Atlanta Camp No. 159, E. C. V., will attend the reunion at Houston, Texas, Sunday night, and is scheduled to arrive in the Texas city this morning, where he will be met by his granddaughter, Mrs. Louis Spinks, of Atlanta, who is visiting relatives in the west. Before leaving Atlanta, Mr. Haygood asked the Constitution to remind Georgia veterans who do not attend the reunion to "be sure and turn out Wednesday at the polls and not only vote for Clifford Walker, but work and get everybody else to vote."

Among other well-known veterans attending the reunion from this section will be Judge George Hillier, Tom Sheppard, Tom Buchanan, Arch Avery, George Phillips, W. W. H. Phelps, J. C. Bridger, J. T. McGee, Campbell Smith and several more members of Atlanta Camp No. 159.

Miss Edna Dowell, a 15-year-old miss, of Berkeley, is the youngest student in the University of California.

DEMOCRATS PLAN TO FORCE LEAGUE ISSUE TO FRONT

Speakers Scheduled to Go Into Virtually Every State and Particularly Stress Paris Covenant.

BY JOHN GLEISSNER,
United News Staff Correspondent.
Washington, October 4.—Administration democrats have agreed to set under way a united attempt to force the league of nations issue to the front during the time remaining between now and election day.

Speakers will go into virtually every state, stressing the league. President Wilson's appeal to the voters will furnish the text. An effort will be made to correct what the democrats hold are misconceptions of the league in the public mind, and coupled with this will be a plea for vindication of national honor and for establishment of the league because it will prevent future wars.

"The league is the winning issue," Homer S. Cummings, formerly chairman of the democratic national committee, declared Monday. "It only needs a proper presentation before the forum of the people. Our speakers through the country find the voters more interested in the league than in any other thing. They want to know about it, and their interest lags when anything else is presented to them."

Cummings will take the stump on the night of October 7 at Cincinnati, going from there into the states of Indiana, Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona and California.

Secretary of War Baker announced Monday he will invade New England, speaking Wednesday at Bridgeport and Danbury, Thursday at New Britain and Friday at Boston. Other administration speakers will include William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury; Secretary of State Coby and Secretary of the Navy Daniels. J. Bruce Kremer, vice chairman of the democratic national committee, is also to begin aspeaking tour. Attorney General Palmer may make speeches later, although he has no engagements at this time.

These are the headliners. The number of speakers already in the field will be increased.

SEE SOVIET'S HAND IN BOMB OUTRAGES

Officials Believe Reds Are Attempting to Overthrow American Institutions by a Reign of Violence.

New York, October 4.—The arrest of Florene Zelenaka, of Brooklyn, with a quantity of explosives in his possession, in connection with the recent Wall street bomb explosions, leads department of justice officials here to believe that the activities of the soviet government of Russia toward the attempted overthrow of American institutions by violence has already begun.

Florene is not only Russian, but it develops that he is a follower of the Lenin and Trotsky dictatorship, which is in reality the "soviet government," as represented in this country by Ludwig Martens, so-called "ambassador."

Department officials do not hesitate to say that the radical school of thought is spreading in this country to an alarming extent.

Since the Soviet society at Moscow recently decided to establish a branch of the "international" in this country for the purpose of coordinating the various revolutionary societies, so that under the one dictatorship the soviet, the revolutionaries looking to the overthrow of the free government of America could be conducted, it is no secret that the soviet societies in this country have come out in the open; and that there are thousands of members scattered throughout the country, even into the far south, there is no longer any doubt.

Officials are working diligently to arrest the spread of this radical movement, but is finding it difficult so long as a few designing politicians throughout the country are taking advantage of it to appeal to prejudice and passions for their own selfish purposes. What some of the radicals have been elected to office recently makes the task more difficult.

rests in Brooklyn and New York. He could furnish no good reason, police said, for having the explosive in his possession, and is alleged to have remarked to a companion on the train:

"Tell them I will have the stuff there tomorrow."

Another remark attributed to him as he was being placed in his cell was:

"See what we did in Wall street. Next time it will be bigger and more terrible. The last was only a start."

U. S. AGENTS CHECK HISTORY OF ZELENAKA.

New York, October 4.—Agents of the department of justice spent today checking up the life history of Florene Zelenaka, arrested in Pittsburgh with a suitcase filled with dynamite, to determine if he held the key to the mystery of the Wall street explosion last month.

Assisted by the police, government investigators sought word of Zelenaka's doings both at his former lodgings in Brooklyn and at headquarters of the communist party there.

This action was taken notwithstanding that, earlier in the day federal officials who quizzed Leon Konkel, the New York steamfitter who brought about Zelenaka's arrest, had asserted Konkel told them nothing which would directly connect the prisoner with the New York explosion.

Konkel, arriving here this morning from Pittsburgh, was subjected to a long examination during which he recounted the conversation he said he had with Zelenaka on a train going from Cincinnati to Pittsburgh. Konkel is said to have stressed the point that Zelenaka gloated over the Wall street disaster.

Konkel told agents of the department of justice that while he was traveling from Cincinnati to Pittsburgh with the suspect, the latter had informed him that he had explosives in his suitcase, and gloated over the Wall street explosion. Konkel said he had him arrested after he had seen dynamite in his traveling companion's suitcase at a hotel in the Pennsylvania city.

If Konkel's information leads to a solution of the New York disaster, he is eligible for the $20,000 reward offered for tips leading to arrest of the guilty parties.

On learning of Zelenaka's arrest, where a suitcase filled with dynamite was found in his room, federal agents visited the Brooklyn address he gave when arrested and established these facts:

section, an hour or more before the disaster.

That he carried a reddish yellow bag.

That he formerly was employed by the Hercules Powder company. That he left in his room a large quantity of alleged radical Russian literature.

Michael Terkasky, a tailor at the Brooklyn address, told government agents he had rented a room to Zelenaka and gave other information concerning him. In a foreign-made trunk left by Zelenaka was a Russian passport issued in 1918.

The possibility that there may be some connection with the arrest of Zelenaka and that of Joseph Greenspan in Brooklyn last Friday was advanced here today, but official comment was lacking.

Greenspan, when arrested for loitering in a building, declared he knew who placed the bomb in Wall street. His room, like Zelenaka's, was said by the police to have contained radical literature. Both men are natives of Russia.

Greenspan is under observation in a Brooklyn hospital.

Meats From the Fulton Market

Tomorrow, Wednesday, October 6, we open for the service of the public,
our NEW MEAT MARKET.

This will be welcome news to the housewives of Atlanta, who have known for many years that they have the BEST fish, poultry and vegetables that come to this market.

It will be the same with our meats. In new, snow white and shining refrigerators, we are going to carry for you the choicest line of Western Meats to be found in Atlanta.

You will see here meats of every kind, kept in the most modern and approved sanitary manner.

We cordially invite your inspection of this added feature of the Fulton Market, as well as its new and more complete arrangements for serving fish, oysters and poultry.

A Complete Market for YOU

Our meat refrigerators make the Fulton Market absolutely complete in its preparedness to serve your table.

FISH—"The best of every fish in season" has always been and always will be our policy.

OYSTERS—We carry throughout the season the finest Chesapeake Bay oysters, as well as shrimps and other delectable sea foods.

POULTRY—This market has become famous for its good poultry of every kind obtainable.

VEGETABLES—Our fresh vegetable and fresh fruit department has grown rapidly as the result of increased demand for fresh green foods of high quality.

And, remember, because we KNOW what we offer you is GOOD, we always GUARANTEE it.

Come and see.

Three boys, Henry Redman, 18 years old, and Byron Tilly, 16 white, and Charlie Jones, 16, a negro, were bound over in Judge Johnson's court Monday afternoon on a charge of burglarizing a clothing store on Whitehall street about two weeks ago. Redman is being held under $1500 bond, the other two under $300 bonds each.

Carlton's

Conservatism

There is a "custom atmosphere" about Carlton's clothes that is attained by conservatism in styling and fine workmanship in construction.

We have never catered to the extremist even in price.

The prevailing desire to modify prices has encouraged many dealers to skimp on fabric quality and tailoring.

During this period of readjustment we shall be as exacting as ever on fabric purity and tailoring thoroughness.

The only skimping we have sanctioned is the lowering of prices to the minimum—which has been done.

SERVICE OF PHONE COMPANY SCORED

"Worst in History of the City," Says Electrician Turner, in Opposing Increase in Rates.

Declaring that the present service of the Bell Telephone and Telegraph company is the "worst in the history of the city" and is not worth the price now being charged for it, City Electrician R. C. Turner presented a communication to city council Monday afternoon, asking that body to oppose the raising of the company's rates pending before the Georgia railroad commission for an increase of rates.

To Mr. Turner's communication was added a resolution introduced by the council committee on telephone and telegraph requesting that the city attorney and the city electrician be instructed to appear before the railroad commission and fight the granting of any increases whatsoever. On motion of Councilman Robert H. Jones the resolution was referred back to the committee, together with the letter of protest from Mr. Turner.

The hearing of the telephone company's petition for higher rates is scheduled to come before the commission on October 27. The company filed notice of its petition with council Monday afternoon.

According to Mr. Turner the claim of increased material and operating expenses is no basis on which the company can properly ask the commission to allow a rate increase. Prices of practically all material entering into telephone construction have decreased greatly during the past few months, he said.

The company is now engaged in installing an automatic system, which, when completed, will decrease labor operating expenses about 50 per cent, he asserted, and declared that instead of increasing rates, the subscribers of the company should be given the benefits of increased operating efficiency and lower cost of materials entering into the construction of telephone plants.

K. C. FREE SCHOOL FOR SERVICE MEN TO OPEN TONIGHT

With an enrollment of practically 300 students, nearly all of whom are ex-service men and women, the free evening classes to be conducted at the Marist college, under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus, opens this evening at 7 o'clock.

The courses to be taught are elementary education, cotton classing, auto mechanics, mechanical drawing, stenography, bookkeeping, typewriting and general English. In all of these studies the school has enrolled a large number of pupils, but the most popular classes have been the auto mechanics and cotton classing. In fact, so popular did the auto mechanics class prove from the beginning of the enrollment that it was found necessary to erect a special building for this work.

This building has been completed on the campus of the Marist college, and with Jack Adkins as instructor, will open with a big class. The establishment of this evening school in Atlanta, which will be taught three evenings each week, is in line with the policy of the Knights to use to the best advantage a large amount of money left in their charge after the many war drives during the past two years.

Similar schools have been established in all of the leading cities of the southeast, and the knights are spending thousands upon thousands of dollars in their efforts to educate, free of charge, the young men and women who served in the late world war, teaching them practical and useful vocations so that they can better take care of themselves in the future.

The school is absolutely non-partisan, and while a small tuition is charged to those who were not in the service if they desire to attend, yet it is absolutely free to every man or woman who had a part in government service during the late war.

Enrollment has not yet closed. Applications will be accepted at 101 East Pine street, K. of C. club, today.

SCHOOL TEACHERS GUESTS AT SPEECH ON SOUTH AMERICA

Teachers of the Atlanta public schools were the invited guests at a lecture on South American commerce, on the occasion of the Atlanta "Plattsburg" for Pan-American commerce, delivered by William A. Reid, foreign trade adviser of the Pan-American union in Washington, at the chamber of commerce last night.

Mr. Reid is a noted Latin-American expert and has been delivering lectures twice daily in the course of foreign trade, which has been in progress one week, classes being held at the chamber of commerce under the auspices of the Southern commercial congress and the chamber of commerce.

The various countries of South America were described by the speaker with special reference to the commerce, industries, education, modernization and the influence of American capital. He described the influence of American teachers on the education of the cities and cited striking examples of American engineering feats.

Mr. Reid also spoke Monday at the luncheon of the builders' exchange. B. C. Getsinger, executive director and commissioner of commerce of the Southern Commercial congress, introduced the speaker.

MRS. NORMA B. GAULT TO REST IN WEST VIEW

News has been received in Atlanta of the sudden death of Mrs. Norma B. Gault, formerly of Augusta, Ga., and well known in Atlanta, which occurred suddenly in Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Gault was 41 years of age, and had been in ill health for some time. At the time of her death she was making a tour through the western states with relatives and a party of friends.

Surviving are her husband, Ralph L. Gault, a prominent grain merchant of Washington, D. C.; her mother, Mrs. J. E. Bramlett, of Atlanta; three sisters, Mrs. P. T. Heath, Miss Pauline Bramlett and Mrs. J. F. Peters, all of Atlanta, and a brother, W. E. Bramlett, of Atlanta.

The body arrived Monday night from Detroit, and was removed to the residence of Mrs. Heath, 690 Ponce de Leon avenue. Funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the residence, with Dr. F. C. McConnell, assisted by Dr. C. W. Daniel, officiating. Interment will be in West View cemetery.

WILL GIVE RECEPTION TO DR. SEAY TONIGHT

A reception in honor of Dr. Warren Mosby Seay, newly appointed pastor of the West End Baptist church, will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the church by members of the congregation. A committee of ladies will have charge of the reception, and the program will include musical selections, short speeches and refreshments.

PHILLIPS MADE HEAD OF ATLANTA TEACHERS

Report of Retiring Secretary Shows All Members Have Paid Dues.

The meeting held Monday afternoon by the Atlanta Public School Teachers' association at the Girls' High school, was featured by the election of officers for the ensuing year, the reading of the annual report from the retiring financial secretary, and the election of delegates to the Atlanta Federation of Teachers and to the annual convention of the American Federation of School Teachers, which convenes at Chicago or New Orleans in December, the city having not yet been decided on.

A short address was delivered by W. A. Sutton, principal of Tech High, in which he urged the full co-operation of all teachers in the work of the association. Following Mr. Sutton, the annual report from C. E. Betts, retiring financial secretary, was read, which showed that all of the six hundred members of the association had paid their dues up in full.

The association voted to continue its efforts for the improvement of the high school situation and to secure better salaries for the assistant principals in both high and grammar schools.

The newly elected officers of the association are C. E. Phillips, president; Miss Gertrude Corrigan, vice president; Miss Lamar Jeter, corresponding secretary; L. O. Kimbrell, financial secretary; and Miss Ruby Jones, treasurer. Those elected as delegates to the Atlanta Federation of Teachers are C. E. Betts, W. R. Hunter, Miss Julia Riddan, Miss Mary Barker and C. E. Phillips. The following will attend the annual convention of the American Federation of Teachers: Miss Gertrude Corrigan and C. E. Phillips.

DR. LYONS TO PRESIDE AT KIWANIS LUNCHEON

Dr. J. Spole Lyons, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and "sky pilot" of the Kiwanis club, will preside over today's Kiwanis luncheon at the request of President George F. Eubanks. The luncheon will be held at the Kimball house at 12:30 o'clock.

Robert S. Wessels, Kiwanis governor for the district of Georgia, expects to announce at today's gathering the date for the proposed state Kiwanis convention, which is planned for Atlanta at an early date. The convention will be attended by delegations from each

CUPID RECEIVES 33 KNOCKOUTS. ALL IN ONE DAY

Thirty-three divorce decrees were ground out by a jury in the divorce court Monday morning, when the undefended divorce docket was called for the September term. Judge W. D. Ellis presiding. The docket now being heard is one of the largest in Fulton county history. Every known form of cruelty was named by the complaining wives and husbands who sought their freedom. J. H. Morrow, prominent Atlanta busness man, was made foreman of the jury. Mrs. Mabel Sewell was granted a divorce by the jury after she told them that her husband, Neer Sewell, was convicted of automobile stealing and given a term of two years on the chain gang. She stated that he is serving his term. Mrs. Irene Cowan was granted a divorce from W. H. Cowan. She told the jury that he tried to make her work in a cotton mill, but she refused and went to work in a five and ten-cent store. She said that she married when she was 15 years old and that her husband often abused her and had gone so far as to knock her down.

Another shattered romance was related by Mrs. Lurley Maboe, who told Judge Ellis that her husband's business was gambling. She was granted a divorce from Almond Maboe. She stated that her husband would come around her place of business drunk and that when she went home she found crowds of men in the house gambling, and she would have to go some place else to spend the night.

FAMILY FORCED TO FLEE BURNING HOME; NONE HURT

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mullen and Mr. and Mrs. James A. of 22 Deane street, were Monday without a home as the result of destruction of their residence by flames shortly before 1 o'clock in the morning. Slight damage was also done to the dwelling at 33 Deane street, occupied by Mrs. S. L. Canada. Both were owned by Mrs. C. T. Terrell, of 99 North Lawn street. The damage is estimated to run from $5,000 to $7,000, which includes the loss of furnishings and belongings of the two families residing in the house destroyed.

The fire is supposed to have originated in a pile of shingles stored under the Mullen home. The blaze had assumed serious proportions when it was discovered and bare opportunity for all occupants to escape safely was given. Quick and efficient work of firemen prevented spreading of the flames.

PROGRAM ANNOUNCED FOR GROUND BREAKING

A fine program has been arranged for the ground-breaking for the $50,000 building for the Holmes Institute, at the corner of Hilliard and Currier streets, starting at 2 o'clock Wednesday. Addresses by prominent speakers of both the white and colored race will be made and the program will be featured by plantation melodies, sung by the student body of the institution.

Harry C. Stutz Says No Price Change on His Latest Offering

In a published statement in The Constitution Sunday, regarding the price of the new H. C. S. car, Harry C. Stutz, designer of this car and president of the company producing it, was inadvertently referred to as "Henry" C. Stutz.

Harry C. Stutz is so well known to all motor car dealers and owners, as one of our foremost designers and automotive engineers, and his name has been so closely associated with the H. C. S. car that it is likely every reader of this advertisement caught the error instantly.

Mr. Stutz's statement regarding a price change was: "There will be no price reduction on the H. C. S. car before July 31, 1921, if then. We have not taken advantage of our customers by high prices; therefore we have nothing to return."

ATLANTA PRESBYTERY TO MEET IN NORCROSS

The Atlanta Presbytery of the Presbyterian church will meet this evening in the Norcross Presbyterian church at 7 o'clock and will continue in session through Thursday, adjourning Friday. Dr. Levy, retiring moderator, will open the meeting with a sermon, after which a new moderator will be elected to serve for the next six months. The presbytery is composed of all five ministers and one layman from the session of each church.

The activities of the church within the bounds of the presbytery will receive special consideration, as also the interest of the church at large. Wednesday evening there will be a popular meeting in the interest of home missions, and Thursday evening there will be a similar meeting in the interest of foreign missions. An interesting conference of deacons will be held Wednesday afternoon, and a large representation is expected to attend. Rev. Robert M. Stimson, of the Gordon Street church, is the stated clerk of the presbytery.

Silks, and Autumn's Woolen Fabrics

Rare Beauty Inspired by Far Horizons Is Found in the Splendid Color Harmonies

Not in all the history of Fabric weaving has a season offered such a wide range of beautiful things from which the woman who seeks the exclusive in apparel, may choose. In Silken Fabrics and in Woolens there are new numbers and the most gorgeous colors.

Veldyne, Cordoval, Evora Superior, Silk and Cashmere Duveltyne, Tricofines, Velours and Homespuns, Chiffon Velvets, Charmeuse, Duchesse Satin. We are just browsing through our wonderful stock, selecting here and there a magic name so that the mind of the reader may conceive a costume. And as you build this costume in your mind consider the colors. In the woolen fabrics are the darker shades, Chefoo, Suchow, Hindu, Zanzibar, Rio, the leaf-colored plaids, all of them indicative of the great outdoors and the spirit of the season. Deep Sea, for instance, must have been inspired one day at sunset when the purple of the fading day found its reflection in the bosom of a calm, unruffled harbor. Not blue, not green, but a wonderful color evolved from both of these.

Azores is the blue of Twilight Sky, the sort of Blue our Airmen saw as they came into the Harbor on the first leg of their trans-Atlantic flight.

Bedouin is the desert, the brown of Bedouin tents and there is a freshness to it that somehow makes one think of the Oasis.

A New Wilton Rug for Fall and Winter

Our Stocks Are Now Complete and Moderately Priced.

There is no better rug made than the Fine Wilton Rug. In body it assures a maximum of service and in coloring and designing it gives to you the best work of Orientals reproduced through modern processes so that you may possess this art for a sum within reason.

Rugs have been scarce this year and we have been a trifle late in completing our selections, but now they are here, a comprehensive assemblage which includes the very best the Looms of America have to offer.

The prices are moderate and with the advance prices for next spring at hand, we can give you a positive assurance that Rugs WILL NOT BE ANY CHEAPER THIS YEAR OR NEXT.

Commencing at $121 you may purchase a FINE WILTON RUG at almost any price you wish to pay.

All colors and the regulation sizes are here for you to choose from and the quality is such that you are really getting more than average value for the money you put into a WILTON RUG at this time.

Shirts For Men At Half Price Still To Be Had

Silk Shirts of One of the Best Known Brands Are Being Cleared Out.

We cannot tell you just what shirt it is we are selling because of an agreement with the manufacturers. But it is one of the best known brands made in the United States and the only reason we are reducing the price is because we are closing out the line and will not carry this brand any more.

There are silk shirts in all the various materials. A complete range of sizes remain and a splendid selection of colors and combinations. These shirts formerly were priced as high as $18.25. As long as they last you may purchase them for exactly HALF PRICE.

And another thing, we have a number of PURE SILK SOCKS left to sell at 69c. These are the sort of socks you have been paying a dollar and a half a pair for. They come in Brown, Navy and Black, some Grays are here, too; all the sizes remain and they are an exceptional value at the price, 69c.

Sweaters Are a Necessity—We Have Complete Stock

Silk or Wool and Fibre Sweaters in Excellent Styles.

Sweaters are greatly in demand right now for the cool of the evening, for Sports Wear and for Motoring. We have prepared with complete lines of Wool and Silk Sweaters to meet the demand and have for your choosing the most complete and beautiful array of Sweaters at every price and in every desirable color and style we have ever been able to show you.

In particular we have here a Wool Sweater in the popular Coat Style which is splendid for School Girls. This is a regular $8.95 value and we offer it for $6.95. In all colors and sizes.

Other Sweaters in Pure Silk and Fiber Silk are very moderately priced and authentically styled.

Dryad speaks of the Forests in the Fall. The turning leaf, the stubble of grass, and one building a costume from a fabric, of this color is sure to be inspired by the whispering of the Pipes of Pan.

In all these fabrics the depth of tone, the soft bloom of the pile, the suppleness of draping quality assures you of the best results in your desire to attain the individual, the distinctive in customizing yourself for Fall and Winter.

In the Silks, of which we have scarcely spoken, the quality and the extreme lowness of price are the factors you will note quickly. We are certain that you can not purchase silks of such quality elsewhere at anything like the prices we ask.

All materials and all colors are here for you to choose from.

House Dresses For The Winter Months

Nowhere else will you find such excellent selections of house dresses. We select these carefully, assuring you of the very best to be had in workmanship and in material. There are Gingham and Percales to choose from in all the styles for Fall, Billy Burkes in abundance, the surplice style and many others. All colors and methods of embellishment are to be seen and you may purchase House Dresses here for as little as $3.98.

It takes More Than Size to make a Pneumatic Truck Tire

TO the truck owner who is looking for facts about pneumatic truck tires, this much may be said—

Be sure to get all the facts before arriving at any definite conclusions.

There are pneumatic truck tires—and there are pneumatic tires made in truck sizes.

It is just as wasteful to put pneumatics that are not truck tires on a motor truck as it would be to put enlarged bicycle tires on an automobile.

So far as we know—and we have gone into this proposition thoroughly—the United States Rubber Company is the only tire manufacturer that has realized the full import of this distinction.

That is building a pneumatic truck tire—not simply a passenger car tire made larger. Building it to haul heavy loads under hauling conditions—not merely because there is a demand for pneumatic truck tires.

If these pneumatic truck tire facts interest you, there are more to be had at our service station for the asking.

CHARLTON COUNTY COMPLETES QUOTA

South Georgians Are the First to Raise Amount
Assigned as Part of Advertise Georgia Enterprise.

Charlton county, in south Georgia, is the first in the state to complete its quota in the Advertise Georgia Enterprise. A telegram to headquarters, in the rotunda of the state capitol, late Monday, announced that the county commissioners had subscribed the entire quota, totaling $500. The state quota is $200,000. While the amount of money is comparatively small, the spirit in which the county officials have taken hold of the movement is most encouraging," said officials of the movement. "We have emphasized that this is not a campaign, but plain business. We are advertising to bring home seekers here, to develop the 20,000,000 acres of idle lands, to help pay for the good roads we are building and, in turn, share the unexploited agricultural and industrial opportunities in Georgia."

While the Savannah Advertising club was working with other civic organizations Monday to raise $15,000 for Chatham county's quota to the Advertise Georgia Enterprise, and also $85,000 for an individual advertising campaign of Savannah as a port, the Atlanta Advertising club took off its coat and went to work.

Dave Webb, president of the Atlanta club, and a member of the executive committee of the enterprise, wrote every club member urging him or her to mail a check to Governor Dorey. Atlanta's quota is $40,000.

The quotas are based on population, land acreage and valuation. Figures of 10 cents per person for national advertising for three years. While the advertising begins in January and covers a year, the "follow-up" of prospective home seekers and new business enterprises will last three years.

Checks are to be made payable to Governor Hugh M. Dorey, general chairman, or to Charles B. Lewis, president of the Fourth National Advertising Club, or to the Advertise Georgia Enterprise, the executive committee, which has complete charge, includes, besides the governor and Mr. Lewis, the following: Hal M. Stanley, state labor commissioner, vice chairman; J. C. McCallister, Augusta, W. B. Roddenberry, Cairo, president of the Atlanta Advertising Club of Savannah, and Dave Webb, president of the Atlanta Advertising Club.

The total area of the Union of South Africa is 447,715 square miles, or about one-sixth the size of the United States. The country is divided into four provinces, of which the Cape of Good Hope is the largest with an area of 276,715 square miles; Natal covers 24,600 square miles; Transvaal, 108,000 square miles, and the Orange Free State, 48,326 square miles.

C. O. P. MAY LOSE SENATOR IN IOWA

Powerful Assault on Cummins Because of Railroad Bill—Harding Going to Iowa to Aid Cummins.

BY MARK SULLIVAN.
Council Bluffs, Iowa, October 4. (Special.)—Everybody has been assuming that the campaign in Iowa was going along in the usual quiet way toward the usual republican victory, but the fact is Iowa has a situation that comes as close to being sensational as any situation in any state this year.

In the parsimonious distribution that is being made of Senator Harding's personal presence you seek a reason for the speech he is to make on Wednesday in this safe republican state. That reason lies in the fact that Senator Cummins is in trouble.

Senator Cummins has so long been the most honored figure in his state and has so high a place among the statesmen of his party in the nation that it comes to you as a shock to learn that he needs all the assistance he can get to secure reelection.

Powerful Attack on Cummins.
Pending a more thorough survey of the state later on the explanation seems to be chiefly the railroad bill which bears Senator Cummins' name in the senate and the name of Congressman Esch, of Wisconsin, as its author in the house.

Esch has just recently been defeated for renomination in his Wisconsin district and Senator Cummins is now being subjected to a powerful assault here in Iowa. The nucleus of the opposition to Cummins is the railroad men, who are numerous here, because Iowa is a state of many railroads. The labor elements have joined the other railroad men, but even both these elements would not be formidable in a state like Iowa and against such strong a figure as Senator Cummins. What is the situation? It is the fact that Iowa has a rapidly spreading radical movement among the farmers.

The new railroad rates are just beginning to be felt in Iowa as precisely the same moment that prices of grain and other farm products is going down.

The Homestead, a radical farmer paper of last year, is circulating the republican ticket with such bitterness that it is more or less admitted that however Harding and Cummins may come out the republican candidate for governor is in danger of defeat. The situation is made worse for Senator Cummins by the fact that he is ill and unable to make a personal campaign.

Opponent of Cummins.
His opponent is a lean person with an acquisitive face suggestive of qualities likely to stick to an opponent until it is successful. His name is Claude Porter, and he is a Wilson appointee as counsel for the federal trade commission at Washington. He is described in terms of the not very unflattering combination of a Presbyterian elder and a shrewd politician. This low case is another example of the fact that however the presidential election may go the republicans are going to have the hardest kind of fight to get a safe man in the senate.

When you find a strong figure as Cummins compelled to fight for his life in a state where he has been governor or senator continuously for the last nineteen years a state which as the late Senator Doolittle expressed it, "Will go democratic when hell goes mad," you are prepared to consider the possibility at least that the republicans may fall entirely in control of the senate this year.

INTENSIVE DRIVE PLANNED BY COX

but also will promote progress and will "set up," or itself become, a clearing house for international justice and for the betterment of the world.

"Those who want to keep on dreaming of a new haven and a new earth," the candidate said, "but those who really want to make their dreams come true and make this world a fit habitat for human spirit, will want to join the league without delay."

The governor detailed the following social service and justice program which he asserted member nations of the league will endeavor to carry out:

"To secure and maintain fair and humane conditions of labor for men, women and children—thus lifting the standard of living everywhere.

"To secure just treatment of the native inhabitants of territories under their control.

"To secure and maintain freedom of communication and freedom of trade between nations, and the commerce of members of the league.

"Labor together in the effort to control and ultimately eradicate disease.

Issue a Moral One.

"Set up commissions for the prevention of the illicit traffic in arms, in dangerous drugs and in women for immoral purposes.

Asserting that the league is not fundamentally a legal or diplomatic but a moral one, and declaring it fortunate that women for the first time hold the balance of power and the deciding vote, the governor said he has no doubt in his mind how the women's vote will be cast. He continued:

"The women of America will vote to keep our pledges to 10,000 heroes whose blood has crimsoned the population of the United States. They will vote for the limitation of arms, the arbitration of disputes, the publication of secret treaties, the amelioration of distress and the elevation of labor conditions to higher standards. In a word, they will vote for a league which will convert Christian idealism into the statutes of sound statesmanship and bring to the sons of men a peace that shall cover the earth as the waters cover the sea."

In connection with assertions by the democratic campaign directors that a reaction toward the democratic ticket had set in and that the Irish people, who have been either opposed to or only lukewarm for the league of nations, now are lining up for Cox and Roosevelt, Governor Cox said he had received a telegram from Edward J. Ryan, who was arrested at Baltimore when he sought to ask Senator Harding a question, saying it was for the democratic candidate. The text of the telegram was not made public.

Governor Cox expects to remain in Dayton tomorrow and return to Columbus Wednesday.

With three exceptions, every president of the United States has been cradled on a farm or in a small town. The exceptions were Andrew Jackson, who was born at Raleigh, N. C.; Theodore Roosevelt, who first saw the light in New York city; and William H. Taft, whose birthplace was Cincinnati.

Armies of Gray Are Mobilizing On Texas City

Trains of Veterans of the '60's Pass Atlanta Daily Bound for the Reunion. Standard Is Presented.

Every hour during the night and day since Sunday morning has marked the passage of troop trains through Atlanta. The mobilization of 60,000 soldiers is in progress, but they wear the gray instead of khaki. The Confederate army is concentrating upon Houston, Texas, for its annual reunion, which opens on Wednesday and continues through the week. From the valley of Virginia to the Gulf, and from far west of the Mississippi to the Atlantic, the remnants of the army of the "lost cause" are gathering to greet their comrades of the sixties.

On Monday afternoon veterans of the North Georgia brigade assembled upon the plaza of the Terminal station. They were animated with the same enthusiasm which buoyed up their spirits at the railroad stations of 1860 and the rebel yell sounded loud and clear above the wondrous warping of automobiles and the noise of trains. Gray uniforms surrounding the tattered flags of the Confederacy added a touch of romantic color to the scene. There were men in that little band who had followed Lee and Jackson, who had ridden behind Stuart and Morgan.

Before the departure of the train at 2:15 p. m. a silk battle flag of the Confederacy was presented to the local contingent from the Atlanta chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy by Hooper Alexander, United States district attorney, Miss Helen Cherry, of Atlanta, sponsor for the Georgia detachment, accepted the standard, which will be borne at the head of the troops.

Miss Cherry, in the coveted position of sponsor, Miss Christine Clark, Miss Helen Fair Mason and Miss Dorothy Davis, maids of honor; Mrs. A. O. Woodward, matron of honor, and Mrs. E. H. Cherry, chaperon, comprise the official escort of the veterans. Many other women will go to the reunion among them Mrs. J. Sid Holland and Miss Mattie Harwell. Mrs. A. McD. Wilson, president general of the Confederate Southern Memorial association, left Sunday. The organization of which she is head will hold its annual meeting in connection with the reunion. An interesting phase of the reunion is the presentation of gold bar insignia to more than 30 mothers of Confederate soldiers who have been found in various southern states.

The Atlanta delegation will have no happier contingent than the 80 soldiers who are going as the guests of the citizens of Atlanta and Fulton county. Contributions were made liberally when it was known that some of the veterans would not be able to pay their expenses and funds were obtained to send every soldier at the Confederate soldiers' home who was not incapacitated, and others from this country. Mrs. Woodward, chairman of the veterans' aid committee of the Atlanta chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, was in charge of the collection of contributions.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY TO HOLD MEET
Americus, Ga., October 4.—(Special.)—The eighteenth annual session of the Baptist Missionary Society of the Southern States association will convene October 5 with Friendship church, near Americus. Rev. Wallace Wear, of Cordele; Miss Ida Rhoads, field worker for the Baptist state mission board, and Mrs. H. E. McGee, of Plains, are out-of-town visitors who will attend the meeting. Miss Rhoads, whose headquarters are in Atlanta, will lecture at the opening session on "Redeeming Pledges."

WORKMEN ENLARGING QUARTERS AT BENNING

Columbus, Ga., October 4.—(Special.)—Active construction work began at Fort Benning today, 200 men being engaged in building officers' quarters. Many officers, who with their families, are now stationed in Columbus, will move out to their camp when the quarters are completed. Major A. C. Doyle, acting quartermaster, states that the number of workmen will be increased daily and construction at Benning will be pushed as rapidly as possible.

OVER $1,000,000 LOSS BY FERTILIZER FIRE

Jacksonville, Fla., October 4.—Fire originating early this morning in the main factory of the Wilson & Toomer fertilizer works on Talleyrand avenue, caused damage amounting to more than a million dollars. Properties of the Mason Forwarding company, adjoining the fertilizer plant, was destroyed, but at 2 p. m. Fire Chief Thomas W. Hancy announced the fire was under control.

Fanned by strong winds, the fire practically wiped out the main section of the fertilizer plant and reached into adjoining property. A general alarm was sounded, but before fire apparatus reached the scene the fire gained a big headway.

Officials are investigating the origin of the fire. Estimates made by officials of both companies placed the loss in conservative figures at about $1,250,000.

During the fire about fourteen box cars, loaded and empty, standing in the plant yard, were practically destroyed. Edward Powers, a former night watchman, who lives on the property, was slightly burned. His place was totally destroyed and was in flames when he awoke.

SIMMS MOTOR CAR
RECEIVERSHIP CASE
SET FOR TUESDAY

The involuntary bankruptcy proceedings brought in the federal court against the Simms Motor Car corporation will be heard at 10 o'clock this morning by Judge Samuel H. Sibley, who issued an order Saturday afternoon requiring the defendant to show cause at that time why a receiver should not be appointed. It was made Monday that efforts will be made to raise sufficient funds to prevent the appointment of a permanent receiver.

The suit was brought by the Sec-for Machine Tool company, the E. A. Bostrom Manufacturing company and L. P. Dube, an Atlanta garage man, who contend their claims against the Simms Motor Car corporation, aggregating $1,567, are unsecured.

The petitioners allege that the Simms company committed an act of bankruptcy on September 1, when it executed a mortgage to Fielder & Allen Co. for $1,600, the amount being given for a past-due debt in preference to other creditors.

It is further claimed that on September 23, the company, acting through H. L. Ennis, vice president and general manager, made transfers of cash to the following persons as creditors: C. M. Love, $250; W. H. Bennett, $250, and H. L. Ennis, $250.

Worn Out In Mind and Body

Your child is quick to observe disturbances in your mental attitude or physical condition. And when he asks: "What's the matter, Daddy?" there's a tone of solemn anxiety in his little voice. The depression stamped upon you reflects intensely upon him because of his profound solicitude. He at once drops his playthings and rushes to your side, but his happy smile has disappeared and his buoyant spirits are gone—replaced by a countenance of worry and a bearing of hopelessness.

You owe it to the happiness and welfare of your family to keep trim in body and keen in intellect. You are the sun and the inspiration of their lives. Dark, threatening clouds hover over their heads the instant you show signs of being "fed up" or "under the weather." Don't imperil their future by neglecting your health.

VOTE FOR WALKER,
URGES DR. JONES

Bases His Support of Former Attorney General on Records of Two Candidates During War.

Dr. M. Ashby Jones, in a letter written to The Atlanta Journal Monday afternoon, urges the people of Georgia to vote for Clifford Walker in Wednesday's primary and declares he bases his decision to support the former attorney general on the record of each during the war.

His statement in full follows: Editor Journal: Allow me to express my very deep desire for the election of Clifford Walker for governor at the election next Wednesday. Were the issue simply the personalities of the two men I should still desire the election of Mr. Walker, but I would not feel called upon to make any public expression.

But the issues involved in this election far transcend any mere personalities. The record of Mr. Walker during the war has recently been attacked. After the inexcusable blunder of making of charging that he was a "clacker" because as an untrained man he should have enlisted in the army.

ACTRESS TELLS SECRET

Tells How to Darken Gray Hair With a Home-Made Mixture.

Jolee Williams, the well-known American actress, recently made the following statement about gray hair and how to darken it, with a home-made mixture:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will gradually darken gray streaked or faded hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 1/4 ounce of glycerine."

These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.—(adv.)

Makes a Family Supply of Cough Remedy

Really better than ready-made cough syrup, and saves about 25%.

Easily and quickly prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break severe coughs. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. SENATOR C. C. PITTMAN
SPEAKS FOR WALKER

Takes Stump at Waycross to Deny Hardwick's Charges of Fraud in Bartow.

Waycross, Ga., October 4.—(Special.)—Speaking before a large and enthusiastic crowd of Ware county voters today, Senator C. C. Pittman, of Cartersville, explained fully the lack of truth in the charges of irregularity in connection with the Cartersville poll in the September 8 primary and urged those present to support Walker.

"I want to submit to your fair minds facts which I humbly believe, must of necessity, lead you to the ultimate and unalterable conclusion that these charges of the Hon. Thomas W. Hardwick are false and that he knew or could have known at the time of their utterance that he was spreading throughout this great state a slanderous falsehood, designed to destroy the character of an honorable citizen and the reputations of men whose lives have been shining lights upon the feet and lamps upon the pathways of many other men," he declared.

Senator Pittman was repeatedly applauded as he drove home point after point in refuting the charges made by Hardwick. He went into some detail explaining the situation as related to Mrs. W. H. Felton, the author of the anonymous letter, signed "Clifford Walker," which was organized here about four months ago with the following officers: F. L. Bolson, president; N. D. Chotaw, vice president; Charles M. Newman, secretary, and Samuel Zinkow, treasurer.

On the occasion of the smoker short talks were made by Bolson, Chotaw, Newman, Zinkow, Turner and Wright and a pleasant and profitable evening was enjoyed by all present.

HUMANITY SOCIETY WILL
NAME OFFICERS TODAY

One of the most important features of the meeting of the Atlanta Humane society which will take place at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon at the chamber of commerce will be the election of officers for the ensuing year.

Then can never forget the most powerful influence back of Mr. Hardwick is the Georgian. Never was there a more misleading name. The people of this state ought to clearly understand that The Georgian is not a local newspaper.

One of the many symptoms of a national disease. It is but a part of the most perfectly organized, adequately financed, and intelligently expressed systems of personal selfishness known to the world. It is the lengthened shadow of William Randolph Hearst, which shadows the pathway, darkens the councils and endures the free progress of democracy all over America. It speaks German, Russian, or Celtic-democratic, republic or soviet—but when truly translated, in any dialect or language, means the personal passions, prejudice, purposes and plans of Hearst.

Now fact is the fact that this sinister influence which has disgraced Chicago with a Thompson, is the most powerful force which is seeking to fill the gubernatorial chair of Georgia. Who will be governor of Georgia?

Mr. Hardwick is elected? Therefore, I sincerely believe that to the extent my influence, I am not justified, but obligated to do all I can for the election of Clifford Walker as governor of Georgia. M. ASHBY JONES

PRESIDENTS CLUB
GIVES APPROVAL
TO PHONE RAISE

The proposed increase in telephone rates asked by the Southern Bell and Telephone company has been approved by the Presidents' club of Atlanta, and a copy of the resolution has been received by the railroad commission.

The club recommends that it grant the increase asked by the company in order that it may receive a fair return for its services and profits enough to maintain credit necessary to obtain capital for expansion. The resolution was passed at the meeting of the club last week, at which J. Epps Brown, president of the Southern Bell, explained the situation with which his company is confronted.

CAPITOL GOSSIP

"Who will win tomorrow?" This is the chief question in discussion at the state capital, despite the fact the first division of the court of appeals was in session Monday afternoon, and about 150 ambitious young would-be parliamentarians have started their examinations before the state board of pharmacy.

Who will win, Hardwick or Walker? A careful survey of the situation in the capitol building finds that no one is willing to be quoted as an authority on what will be the outcome of Wednesday's voting.

Commissioner of Commerce and Labor Hal M. Stanley and Tax Commissioner E. J. Fulbright believe in voting, and Wednesday will find them away from their offices, the former going to his home in Durham to cast his ballot, while the latter will add his to others in Waynesboro.

When Mr. Stanley returns to the city early Thursday morning he will immediately get busy with the organization of the workmen's compensation board, having called a meeting of the other members to meet in his offices. Gordon Saussey, of Savannah, recently appointed as a member of the board, with W. P. Bailey, of Atlanta, was in the city Monday and held a conference with both the governor and Mr. Stanley.

The tax commissioner will also find work awaiting him on his return Thursday, for only a few of the county tax digests which are in the hands of boards of arbitration now remain unsettled and all are expected to be completed this week. When these decisions are rendered, Mr. Fulbright will then announce the total of Georgia's tax returns for this year, which will show a large increase over 1919, it is stated.

The governor's race will have to take the background today in the school superintendent's division of the capitol, for the state board, composed of Governor Hugh M. Dorsey, Superintendent M. J. Brittain, D. C. Harrow, Athens; Dr. G. R. Glenn, Dalton; S. S. Butler, and A. H. Moon, of Tifton.

An auditor to succeed J. W. Stevens, deceased, and a new school inspector will be elected by the board, while the question of advertisements appearing in text books used in Georgia schools will also come up for decision.

In addition to these matters, the regular routine of business will come before the board, and the session, it is said, is expected to close early in the afternoon.

The political forecasters had an experienced addition to their force Monday in the person of Tom Connor, formerly of The Constitution, who has spent a number of months during recent years writing political stories and placing the happenings of the capitol in print. Mr. Connor is now chief investigator of the Georgia Securities commission, having started his duties bright and early Monday morning.

His office is in the department of the secretary of state, and he is now busy investigating the financial condition of several companies applying for permission to sell stock in Georgia.

So, outside of these few little news items, the capitol is rather quiet, though there is occasionally an outburst as the cheerful inmates discuss the political situation and wonder who will win in tomorrow's election.

SENATOR C. C. PITTMAN
SPEAKS FOR WALKER

Takes Stump at Waycross to Deny Hardwick's Charges of Fraud in Bartow.

Waycross, Ga., October 4.—(Special.)—Speaking before a large and enthusiastic crowd of Ware county voters today, Senator C. C. Pittman, of Cartersville, explained fully the lack of truth in the charges of irregularity in connection with the Cartersville poll in the September 8 primary and urged those present to support Walker.

"I want to submit to your fair minds facts which I humbly believe, must of necessity, lead you to the ultimate and unalterable conclusion that these charges of the Hon. Thomas W. Hardwick are false and that he knew or could have known at the time of their utterance that he was spreading throughout this great state a slanderous falsehood, designed to destroy the character of an honorable citizen and the reputations of men whose lives have been shining lights upon the feet and lamps upon the pathways of many other men," he declared.

Senator Pittman was repeatedly applauded as he drove home point after point in refuting the charges made by Hardwick. He went into some detail explaining the situation as related to Mrs. W. H. Felton, the author of the anonymous letter, signed "Clifford Walker," which was organized here about four months ago with the following officers: F. L. Bolson, president; N. D. Chotaw, vice president; Charles M. Newman, secretary, and Samuel Zinkow, treasurer.

On the occasion of the smoker short talks were made by Bolson, Chotaw, Newman, Zinkow, Turner and Wright and a pleasant and profitable evening was enjoyed by all present.

Murder Charge Placed
Against Auto Driver
When Miss Devlin Dies

Macon, Ga., October 4.—(Special.) Miss Drusilla Devlin, whose left leg was crushed almost from her body Sunday afternoon when she was struck by a car driven by Charles Hudson, of Jones county, died this afternoon at the Macon hospital, following an operation for the amputation of the limb. Immediately after her death, a charge of murder was booked against Hudson, who had been held in jail since the accident on a charge of assault with intent to murder. The warrant was taken out by Louis Long, brother-in-law of Miss Devlin.

When informed of the death of Miss Devlin, Hudson was visibly affected. He said: "I'd as soon have killed one of my own family as to have had this happen."

Hudson has retained Joe Ben Jackson, of Jones county, and Judge John P. Ross, of Macon, to defend him.

A great deal of feeling has been engendered by the accident. Officers who arrested Hudson declared he was intoxicated at the time. He admitted driving fast, and said he was not looking when his car went around a curve and crashed into the car containing Miss Devlin and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Long.

10,384,144 POPULATION
FOR NEW YORK STATE IN CHARITY BEQUESTS

Washington, October 4.—New York state, the most populous in the country, has a population of 10,384,144; an increase of 1,270,539, or 13.8 percent, over that of ten years ago. Populations of three other states also were announced today by the census bureau. Texas has 4,661,027 inhabitants; an increase of 764,485, or 19.6 percent, over 1910. New Jersey, with a population of 2,155,314, showed an increase of 318,201, or 14.9 percent, over 1910. New York's growth was the second largest in its history, but was 514,199 below that of the decade ending in 1910.

Revised statistics on New York city's population also announced today, show the city to have absorbed practically two-thirds of the entire state's growth. The revised population of the city was 5,629,048; an increase of $3,165, or 17.9 percent. This was 1,102 less than the population previously announced.

Texas is expected to retain its present rank of the fifth most populous state. Although its numerical growth was large, the state showed its lowest relative increase.

New Jersey, which ranked eighth in 1910, passed Indiana and Georgia in 1920 census rank. The state showed its second largest numerical growth on record.

Idaho passed New Mexico and Vermont in the 1920 rank of states. It showed its second greatest numerical growth, but its relative increase was the lowest in its history.

Other figures follow: New York city (revised), 5,629,048; increase 3,165, or 17.9 percent. Hudson county, N. J., 107,379; increase 59,473, or 75.5 percent. Ossining, N. Y., 10,739; decrease 741, or 8.1 percent. Harris county, Texas, containing Houston, 186,667; increase 70,794, or 61.3 percent.

Essex county, New Jersey, containing Newark (revised), 452,089; increase 139,203, or 30.8 percent. Hudson county, New Jersey, containing Jersey City (revised), 229,154; increase 91,933, or 17.1 percent. Passaic county, New Jersey, containing Paterson (revised), 259,144; increase 91,933, or 17.1 percent. Westchester county, New York, containing Yonkers (revised), 344,438; increase 61,381, or 21.7 percent.

ROY COBB ASSOCIATED WITH THE CARLTON CO.

Woman's Club Booth At Southeastern Fair.

Mrs. Joseph Heard, Jr., chairman of the committee of the Atlanta Woman's club, has appointed Mrs. William M. Hannabery chairman of the exhibit fair committee for the Atlanta Woman's club booth at the Southeastern fair, which opens Saturday, October 15.

Mrs. Hannabery requests that any number of the club who has an exhibit for the booth send it to the women's clubhouse, 196 Peachtree street, on or before October 15. A committee of ladies will be at the clubhouse to receive and register articles brought in. All exhibits must be made by a member of the club and marked plainly with name of article, name, address and phone number of exhibitor so the same may be returned to owner at close of fair. Any exhibit not meeting these requirements will not be registered.

Handwork.

Any article, old and rare; any piece of needlework, dressmaking, millinery, hand-made lace, hand-painted china, oil or water color paintings, articles of handwork, brass, burnt wood or burnt leather, hand-made rugs, flowers, baskets, beaded bags, jellies, jams, preserves, pickles, fruits and vegetables put up in jars; in fact any and everything of quality will be accepted.

Individual prizes will not be given, but a general prize for the best exhibit of quality will be given. The following committee members will assist Mrs. Hannabery in the work: Mrs. J. P. Thomas, president; Mrs. Joseph Heard, Jr., chairman; Mrs. Allison Green, Mrs. M. E. Harris, Mrs. W. C. King, Mrs. George O'Leary, Mrs. A. J. Richardson, Mrs. T. T. Stevens, Mrs. Stafford, Mrs. D. R. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gandy entertained Miss Sara Adams and Mr. Morris Shadburn.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Bramlett entertained as their guests Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Traxner, Mrs. Traxner and Mrs. Holliday of New Orleans.

U. S. Training Corps.

The United States training corps for women will meet in Cable Plaza hall this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Members are requested to come prepared to drill and take the setting up exercises. All who are interested in this movement are cordially invited to join and work with the corps.

Today's Calendar.

There will be an informal dinner-dance at the Capital City club.

Mrs. Delos White will be hostess at a matinee party this afternoon at the Lyric theatre in compliment to Miss Martha Whitner, a bride-elect of Wednesday.

Mrs. H. H. McCall's bridge this afternoon at the Woman's club for Mrs. Bernard A. Boykin and Mrs. George Brown Hoyt.

Miss Charlotte Stopfer's matinee party for Miss Sue Rae Symmes, a bride-elect.

Mrs. J. E. McRee will be hostess at a luncheon in compliment to Mrs. J. D. Palmor, of Detroit, the guests to include the members of the executive board of the Atlanta Woman's club.

Miss Elizabeth Hawkins will entertain the members of the Tuesday Ladies' club, in compliment to Mrs. Marshall Ramsey Diggs, of Houston, Texas, at her home on Piedmont avenue.

Miss Dodo White will entertain at an afternoon tea at 5 o'clock at her home on Howard street, in compliment to Miss Martha Whitner, whose marriage will be an interesting social event of Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Palmer will entertain at luncheon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Sawtell, on Peachtree road, in honor of Miss Martha Whitner, a bride-elect of Wednesday.

Mrs. Howard McCall will entertain at a bridge party this afternoon at the Woman's club in honor of two recent brides, Mrs. Bernard A. Boykin, who was Miss Bruce, of Columbia, S. C., and Mrs. George Brown Hoyt, who was Miss Mary Willis.

Mrs. McCall will be assisted in entertaining by Miss Lillian Tidwell and Mrs. Howard H. McCall.

The guests will be Miss Mary Brown, Miss Louise Campbell, Miss Mary Murphy, Miss Mary Rice, Miss Mary Woodridge, Miss Corrie Hoyt, Miss Margaret Hoyt, Miss Gladys Byrd, Miss Margaret Hoyt, Miss Nell Choate, Miss Jean Douglas, Miss Helen Douglas, Mrs. Cator Woodford, Mrs. Norman Coledege, Mrs. Kenneth Kneen, Mrs. Thomas Hancock, of Montgomery; Mrs. Marshall Diggs, of Dallas; Mrs. John Boykin, of Omaha, Neb.; Mrs. George Campbell, of Atlanta; Mrs. George Beers, of Raleigh, N. C.; Mrs. George Raines, of Brown, N. C.; Mrs. George M. Brown, of Irving, Texas; Mrs. B. M. Boykin, of E. D. Kennedy and Mrs. Logan Crichton.

Anniversary Service.

The anniversary services of the founding of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held at the First Presbyterian church on Monday evening, October 11, at 8 o'clock.

An inspiring, patriotic program has been planned. All patriotic organizations in the city are invited to be present.

Mrs. Max E. Land, state regent; Mrs. Oscar Peoples and Mrs. W. L. Peel will make short addresses. Mrs. Benjamin Elsas will sing a solo.

Besides the fact that Charles E. Sheldon, Jr., will play the organ solos, much interest is centered in the organ itself, which is the most complete in the city, being especially designed by Charles E. Sheldon, Jr., for the church.

An interesting feature will be the entrance of a full company of soldiers, who will salute the flag during the singing of "The Star-Spangled Banner."

The committee in charge of the church will be members of the Joseph Habersham chapter, who are also members of the First Presbyterian; Mrs. John J. Woodside, Mrs. Neal, Mrs. Gordon Kiser, Mrs. Philiz Calhoun, Mrs. James Robinson, Mrs. Edward Inman and Mrs. Doughty Manley.

The church will be appropriately decorated with flags belonging to the chapter.

Honoring Mrs. Diggs.

Mrs. Marshall Ramsey Diggs, of Dallas, Texas, was the honor guest at a bridge tea yesterday afternoon, given by Mrs. Vazey Rainwater at "Dogwood Terrace," her home in Druid Hills.

Following the bridge game, tea was served in the dining room. The table was lace-covered and gracing the center there was a marble composite filled with purple grapes. At either end of the table were placed turquoise blue bowls, filled with purple and pink flowers. Marble birds were perched on these bowls.

The honor guest was given a book of bridge rules and the other prizes were books on bridge.

Mrs. Rainwater was gowned in flesh-colored etoffe de chene. Diggs was gowned in green duvetyne and her hat was a model in taupe-colored duvetyne, embroidered in gold.

Woman's Club Day At Lakewood.

October 8 will be Woman's Club day at Lakewood park, and a program brimful of interest and pleasure has been arranged. There will be an open air movie, Mary Pickford as "Rebecca at Sunnybrook Farm," one of the features of entertainment.

There will be foot races for children, when prizes will be awarded to the successful contestants.

One-half the proceeds of the afternoon and evening performances at the park will be given to the Woman's club members for their new members, therefore, the patronage of all club members and their children is urged.

For Miss Whitner.

Miss Martha Whitner, a bride-elect of the week, will be honor guest at a luncheon given by Mrs. Charles Palmer today at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Sawtell, on Peachtree road.

Covers will be laid for Misses Martha Whitner, Corrie Whitner, Lida Whitner, Virginia Simpson of Princeton, Eleanor Crotte of Goldboro, N. C., and Mrs. Dodo White.

A Correction.

The photograph which appeared in The Constitution Sunday over the name of Miss Elizabeth Woods should have been entitled Miss Elizabeth Chandler Wood, whose engagement was announced to Mr. Sheldon B. Fortinberry.

In the same issue the engagement was also announced to Miss Elizabeth Burnham Woods to Mr. Joseph Herkimer McComb, the similarity of names giving rise to the mistake.

Invitations Issued.

Invitations have been sent out to the members of the Presidents' club to a meeting on Thursday night, October 7, at 9 o'clock, in the grill room of the Piedmont hotel, as the guest of Mr. D. W. Webb, president of the Ad-Men's club of Atlanta.

For Mrs. Hastings.

Mrs. Stanley Hastings, a recent bride, will be honor guest at a bridge-tea given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. William Alden, at her home in Decatur.

For Miss Ray.

Mrs. Fred Jones will entertain at a bridge party Wednesday afternoon at her home on Peachtree street in honor of Miss Sarah Will Ray, a bride-elect.

Harrison-Weathers Wedding Is Solemnized at "Fernbank"

Mr. and Mrs. Z. D. Harrison announce the marriage of their daughter, Agnes Tinsley, to Mr. Alexander Brantley Weathers, the marriage having been solemnized yesterday at high noon at "Fernbank," the home of the parents of the bride, in Druid Hills.

The ceremony was witnessed by only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom, and was performed by Rev. Hendree Harrison, of Nashville, Tenn., a brother of the bride. The living room was decorated with palms, ferns and foliage plants.

The bride is a lovely representative of one of the state's most prominent families, her father a leading citizen and her sisters and her brothers talented in many lines, and active forces in their several professions and communities. They are Miss Emily Harrison, Miss Fannie Harrison, now with the Red Cross in Europe, and Mrs. Loring Raoul, Rev. Hendree Harrison, Mr. Daniel Harrison and Mrs. Michael Hoke. Mr. Weathers was formerly with the law firm of Simpson, Thatcher & Bardett, of New York city, but has recently entered the granite business in Marietta, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Weathers left for Savannah, and will go from that point to New York, going from there to the Massachusetts hills to spend several weeks. On their return they will make their home in Marietta.

TEW CASE IS REOPENED

$250 Fine and 12 Months' Sentence Imposed.

Judge John D. Humphries, of the criminal division of the superior court, Monday morning reopened the case of H. C. Tew, young Atlantaan, recently sentenced to serve a term of from one to four years in the penitentiary on a charge of complicity in an attempt to rob a young Jacksonville woman at a local hotel, revoked the original sentence, and imposed a fine of $250 and twelve months, probating the changing sentence on the condition of good behavior.

In reopening the case Judge Humphries stated that he had made an investigation of the facts in the case and that the young woman had given an assumed name and that the circumstances of the case discredited her story. At the same time Judge Humphries reprimanded Tew for his original statement to the jury concerning the affair with the woman. Tew at the trial denied the robbery story and claimed that the young woman voluntarily entered the room occupied by himself and a friend.

Judge Humphries told Tew that in the event that his mother pays his fine that he will have to reimburse her at the rate of $25 per month.

CHARITIES ASK AID FOR NEEDY FAMILY

A small sum of money is being asked by the Associated Charities of Atlanta to assist the mother of seven children in keeping her children in school. The mother has written that her husband makes a salary which barely makes both ends meet and that she is at her wit's end to provide for the needs of her children. She asks that they be kept in school sufficiently clothed. The Associated Charities has designated the sum of $25, which will be enough to buy at wholesale the things needed. The organization also suggests the donation of any clothing for the children.

The Housewives Burden

When a woman is almost distracted from overwork, her home is in disorder, crying children, and on top of all is suffering from backache, bearing down pains, or some other form of feminine ills, then she should remember that hundreds of women in just her condition have been restored to health and regained their youthful strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and not rest until she has given it a fair trial.

Proof that it Restored the Health of These Two Women

Cairo, Ill.—"Some time ago I got so bad with female trouble that I thought I would have to be operated on. I had a bad displacement. My right side would pain me and I was so nervous I could not hold a glass of water. Many times I would have to stop my work and sit down or I would fall on the floor in a faint. I consulted several doctors and every one told me the same but I kept fighting to keep from having the operation. I had read so many times of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped my sister so I began taking it. I have never felt better than I have since then and I keep home and am able to do all my work. The Vegetable Compound is certainly one grand medicine."—Mrs. J. R. MATTHEWS, 3511 Sycamore Street, Cairo, Ill.

Chattanooga, Tenn.—"I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my baby came when I could no longer keep up. It strengthened my back and relieved me of the ill effect which so often develops at such times. That was my first experience with the Vegetable Compound. Years afterwards I took it during the Change of Life and got along so well I scarcely ever had to lie down during the day and seldom had dizzy, fainting spells. I am now well and strong, can do all my housework with perfect ease and it is a comfort to me to be able to say to other suffering women 'take Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine and be strong.' I will be glad to have you use my name if it will be the means of helping any one."—Mrs. R. A. FAIRBURN, 608 Orchard Knob Ave., Chattanooga, Tenn.

If from the age of nine you had suffered from liver trouble, then suddenly found relief, you'd probably be happy. Will Stress is. That's why he wrote the letter which we reproduce here without a single word changed:

"At the age of nine years I had malaria fever and ever since then my liver and kidneys have been troubling me a great deal."

"I have had the service of good doctors and used many kinds of medicine with little beneficial results until about three months ago my Uncle William Stress recommended Livatabs."

"I want to tell you Livatabs is the finest medicine I have ever taken. I feel like a new man. My work is lighter and easier and I am gaining in weight and feeling fine."

"Never saw their equal for building up the liver and run-down system after sickness."

"Livatabs are well worth their weight in gold."

"Had breath, sour stomach and constipation are all signs of a liver not functioning properly. Use Livatabs, the no calomel, no gripe, no pain, no nausea tablets. They'll tune your liver up. Livatabs are absolutely guaranteed. If you are not satisfied with the results, your druggist is authorized to refund your money on return of the package."

L. & N. May Change Routing Through Georgia, Securing Entry Over Own Rails Into Florida

The L. & N. railroad, which recently gave up trackage rights over the G. S. & F. railroad, a connecting link for its limited passenger service to Florida, has purchased, or will acquire by lease or otherwise, the A. B. & A. R. R. or the S. & A. R. R., either of which would give this big system, in connection with its parent organization, the A. C. L., entry on its own rails into Florida points and into practically all of the Gulf and Atlantic seaports south of New York. The map shows both the A. B. & A. and the S. & A. railroads, and shows how the contact with the Florida points could be effected.

By PAUL JONES.

Is the Louisville and Nashville about to provide a new routing for its Florida tourist trains and its through business to Georgia and Florida ports?

Will there be a change in the routing of the Dixie Flyer, and the Dixie Limited, from Atlanta to Florida points?

These questions arise from the information that some time shortly before June 10 the Louisville and Nashville either withdrew its crack limited train, the "Southland," from its regular through run to Jacksonville over the tracks of the Georgia Southern and Florida, which runs from Macon to Jacksonville and Palatka, or was told by the Southern railway that its train could no longer be handled over that route.

And in addition to the above information there have been many rumors among railroad men to the effect that the Louisville and Nashville had either purchased the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic, or would buy that road.

It was also rumored that the L. & N. had acquired, or was about to get, the old "Brisson" road, which is now known as the Savannah and Atlanta, connecting Savannah at Camak with the Georgia railroad, a property held under a 99-year lease by the L. & N., giving the L. & N. one of the shortest routes between Atlanta and the principal seaport of the state.

The Savannah and Atlanta railroad is now owned by Imbrie & Co. of New York.

While no official announcement has been made by the Louisville and Nashville regarding its intentions with reference to the A. B. & A., or the Brisson road, a study of the distances and the physical aspect of the situation gives a highly reasonable color to the persistent rumors that will not down.

Forced to Discontinue.

By this cutting off of the Louisville and Nashville railroad from the use of the Georgia Southern and Florida, from Macon to Tifton, the L. & N. was forced to discontinue the train below Atlanta, and it now stops here at the Union depot in Atlanta.

With the use of practically its own tracks, including the Monon, which is said to be under the joint management of the Southern railway and the L. & N. from Chicago, and with its own lines from St. Louis and Cincinnati, to Atlanta, it is not believed that the big system will allow itself to be cut off from the share of the lucrative winter passenger patronage, especially in view of the fact that its railroad holdings south of Atlanta are such that with a few additions and acquisitions, the company could run through trains from each of the above named points into Savannah, Jacksonville, Brunswick and all Florida resorts.

The Louisville and Nashville railroad has for years held the Georgia road, running from Atlanta to Augusta, under a long term lease. This line, extending toward Augusta, connects at Camak, 124 miles from Atlanta, with the Savannah and Atlanta railroad. The mileage of this road from Camak to Savannah is 145 miles, which, added to 124, from Atlanta to Camak, makes a total mileage between the capital city and the principal seaport of Georgia of 269 miles. This is just ten miles longer than the shortest rail route from Atlanta to Savannah, which is by the Southern to Macon, the Macon, Dublin and Savannah, and the Seaboard Air Line a total of 259 miles.

Could Run Own Train.

Should the Louisville and Nashville acquire the Savannah and Atlanta, it could run its Southland and other limited trains southward to Savannah and Jacksonville over the lines of the Georgia railroad, the Savannah and Atlanta and the Atlantic Coast Line, the parent organization of the big system, of which the L. & N. is a member.

At the same time schedules could be arranged by which the Louisville and Nashville, coming into Atlanta from Chicago, Louisville, Nashville, Cincinnati and St. Louis, and its own rails, could serve with through trains Augusta, Aiken and other of the famous winter resorts in eastern Georgia and South Carolina.

Railroad men admit that the above plan is most reasonable, but none of the Atlanta "cinder colony" has any information to give out concerning the plans for the winter trains of the L. & N.

The question of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroad and its possible purchase or acquisition by the Louisville and Nashville, has been a fertile source for speculation for some time, many of the railroad men, believing that the A. B. & A., which extends from Atlanta to Jacksonville, has already been taken under the L. & N.'s wing.

Should this property be acquired by the Louisville and Nashville for its Florida service, fast schedules could be put into effect from Atlanta via Manchester, the junction of the Birmingham branch, Cordele and Waycross. The distance to Waycross from Atlanta is 277 miles, and the road is so graded, it is declared, that it could be put in shape for rapid passenger traffic.

352 Miles to Jacksonville.

At Waycross the A. B. & A. would turn the fast L. & N. train over to the Atlantic Coast Line, which would send them southward to Jacksonville and other Florida points. The distance from Waycross to Jacksonville over the A. C. L. is 75 miles, making the total distance from Atlanta to Jacksonville 352 miles.

The distance from Atlanta to Jacksonville over the Southern railway and the G. S. & F. railroad is 349 miles, while the mileage of the route taken now by the Dixie Flyer, over the Central of Georgia to Macon (103 miles), G. S. & F. to Tifton (105 miles), Tifton to Waycross (71 miles), makes a total distance traversed by the Dixie Flyer between Atlanta and Jacksonville, Fla., of 384 miles.

The acquisition of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic by the Louisville and Nashville railroad would also give the latter road entry into Brunswick, with valuable port rights, adding another port to the large number of south Atlantic and gulf ports now entered by the Louisville and Nashville and the Atlantic Coast.

The question of the routing of the Dixie Flyer, and that of its sister, the Dixie Limited, during the coming winter tourist season, is one that is furnishing much interesting speculation among the railroad men, as well as the public generally.

Valuable Connecting Link.

The Georgia Southern & Florida is regarded as a very valuable connecting link among the railroads of this section for the establishment of fast passenger schedules between Dixie and the central west. This road, under the administration of the Southern railway, having either denied the Louisville & Nashville the further use of its tracks, or having met with a refusal of the L. & N. to continue the use of the tracks because of congested traffic conditions, it is believed will also discontinue the trackage service allowed the Dixie Flyer, and the winter tourist train, the Dixie Limited.

This would mean that another route will have to be provided for these trains.

Some of the railroad men believe that the Dixie Flyer, and her sister train, will take again to the old route over the Central of Georgia and the A. C. L. via Albany, which will add several miles to the present total traversed by that train, making the run between Jacksonville and Atlanta, over the Central of Georgia to Macon (103 miles), to Albany (104 miles), to Waycross (71 miles), the grand total being 278 miles.

These trains, operated out of Chicago over the E. & W. H. and C. & E. I. to Evansville, Ind., take the rails of the Louisville and Nashville at the latter named city, making connection with a train from St. Louis that uses the L. & N. main line, the train coming into Nashville over the L. & N. track.

Subsidiary of L. & N.

Upon reaching Nashville, the Dixie Flyer gets on the rails of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis, over which it is brought into Atlanta. The latter company is a subsidiary of the Louisville and Nashville, the L. & N. owning more than half of the stock of the N. C. & St. L. It is stated.

In considering the routing of the Dixie Flyer over the tracks of the Central of Georgia, it is of taken into account that the Central of Georgia is a part of the Illinois Central, one of the rivals of the L. & N., and it is looked upon as probable that the Central road may refuse to handle the trains of the N. C. & St. L. or the L. & N.

Should this come to pass, the purchase or acquisition of the Central, Birmingham and Atlantic, or the Savannah and Atlanta, as connecting links between the middle west and the Florida points will, it is thought, be regarded as necessary by the Louisville and Nashville. No official statements have been made regarding the above speculations, but it is a known fact that the Louisville and Nashville railroad is seldom caught asleep at the switch, and with reference to the rumors that are flying about, it may be observed that "where there's much smoke, there must be some fire."

By ruling of the state labor commission of Oklahoma, women manicurists in that state are prohibited from working in barber shops after 8 p. m.

HOW TO GET RID OF CATARRH

A Simple, Safe, Inexpensive Method That Clears Out the Head, Nose and Throat.

Fall Painting costs less than spring

There is at least one big reason why Fall painting will cost you less. Putting it off until next Spring, after your buildings have gone through another Winter's wear means they will take more paint to paint them. That's just the plainest kind of plain horse sense.

Then another thing: next Spring you will be so rushed with Spring work that you will put painting off until Fall—and so it goes on from bad to worse.

Any way you figure it, you can save money by painting this Fall. And speaking of saving—send for circular called—"Figure Your Paint Costs with a Brush—Not a Pencil." Remember that Lowe Brothers' Paint is sold by the one best dealer in each town.

Miss Alexa Stirling Qualifies With Fine Score; Will Face Miss Burns in First Match from the 500 enthusiasts that followed. Her driving and mid-range shots had all the brilliance of Chick's. On the 18th hole, on one occasion, after putting Monday was weak in spots. She counted four and the putt was short. Monday had her putter been working in its usual inspired manner.

Monday was one of the players furnished the big crowd of spectators with exceptional golf most of the day. Monday and Stirling played around the course.

By strange coincidence the pushful Monday paired with Mrs. Caleb Fox, the oldest player in the tournament. Mrs. Fox is 82 years of age. Monday and Fox, as the tournament progressed, Monday was runner-up and Fox was a medalist half a dozen times, known to the spectators as the "old lady" of the course. Only once in all her 21 years' experience has she failed to make a hole in one. Monday's extremely apt appearance furnished a striking contrast to Miss Stirling, with her brown eyes and untiring vigor.

Played Great Golf.

From the time she drove from the first tee to the last, Monday played the best golf she knew to turn in a creditable score. Her first round was 74, and her second round was 76. Monday was unfortunate enough to be caught in a bunker. Using a mid-iron, she was unable to get out of this position, thereby startling old timers on the Mayfield course.

Monday's second round failed to clear the high hill that intervenes. Experts in the gallery witnessed Monday's second round with more trouble here, but again she drove straight down the fairway.

At the turn the champion had a 32 card turned in by Miss Hollins. On the five following holes she beat her score for the first nine holes. The result was that she had a 32 card turned in for the tenth hole, which Harry Vardon has called "the best golf hole in the world." She then proceeded to sink her balls. A beautiful bird shot on the eleventh hole, the longest shot in the world, all the way to sink her ball for the five.

At the Seventeenth.

A striking example of Miss Hollins's play Monday came at the seventeenth hole. She had a 32 card turned in a beautiful drive from the tee straight down the fairway. The ball was a perfect shot, and the carry of one of Baba Ruth's tremendous drives. It cleared all hazards and landed in the green, rolled to within fifteen feet of the hole. She then took three putts to sink it.

"I can play better golf than I did today," she commented laconically.

"My putting was away off. I will try to play better to win from today," she said.

TEAM PLAYERS

Chicago, October 4.—Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the Chicago White Sox, yesterday sent checks for $1,500 each to the ten members of last year's team who were not involved in the baseball scandal. Letting the money be sent to reimburse the players for he amount they lost when the White Sox failed to win the pennant was the first step in the settlement of the scandal.

The checks were sent to Ray Schalk, Byrd Lynn, Urban Faber, Dick Kerr, E. H. Wilkinson, Eddie Collins, John Collins, E. McInnis, Harry Leibold and E. Murphy.

"As one of the honest ball players of the Chicago White Sox of 1919 I feel that you are deprived of your winner's share of the world's baseball receipts through no fault of yours," Comiskey's letters to the players said. "I do not intend that you, as honest ball players, should be penalized for your honesty or by reason of the dishonesty of others. And therefore take pleasure in the fact that you are given your fair share between the winner and the loser's share."

PRESENT SERIES IS SQUARE

Chicago, October 4.—The Brooklyn and Cleveland baseball clubs, contenders in the world series, which opens Tuesday, tonight were presented of any connection with the baseball scandal so far as evidence presented to the Cook county grand jury is concerned.

State's Attorney Hoyne and his assistant, Hartley-Replogle, who is in Chicago on the inquiry which already has resulted in the indictment of eight Chicago White Sox players on charges of throwing games in last year's series, tonight issued statements declaring that no evidence or testimony in any way implicating any member of this year's pennant winners has come before the grand jury.

Mr. Hoyne sent a telegram to the New York authorities denying reports that he had gathered evidence during his recent eastern trip which indicated an attempt to bribe the world's series contenders this year.

"There never has been anything to implicate anyone in an attempt to 'fix' the series this year," said Mr. Replogle. "Reports to that effect were either deliberate attempts to injure baseball or the inaccuracy of reporters who wished to 'make' news."

"Because of the false reports that we had received evidence that the 1920 series would be crooked, we took up the matter, but we were unable to find even the slightest foundation for such reports."

The grand jury will reconvene tomorrow afternoon in a special session with nothing on the docket but the baseball investigation. A group of baseball officials and players have been subpoenaed and it is planned to call more later, according to Mr. Replogle, who said he believed the inquiry would last several weeks longer.

Among those who are scheduled to appear tomorrow are "Kid" Gleason, manager of the White Sox; Hughie Jennings, manager of the Detroit Tigers; John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants; "Tip" O'Neill, former western league president and confidant of Charles Comiskey, owner of the White Sox; Jean Dubuc, former Detroit pitcher, now with Toledo; Benny Kauff, New York National outfielder, and Fred Toney, New York National pitcher.

President Heydler of the National league, has been asked to appear before the jury again at his convenience and President Johnson of the American league, also is expected to testify later.

Eddie Collins, second baseman and captain of the White Sox, and Ray Schalk, catcher, will be called before the jury. They will be asked whether they believe games were thrown this year and also to discuss technically plays which lost games in last year's series.

New Jury.

The October session of the Cook county grand jury which was sworn in today was charged by Judge Charles McDonald to "carefully investigate" any information concerning baseball gambling which might come before it. The jury, however, is not expected to conduct a separate inquiry, but turn over evidence it may gather to the special session of the baseball jury.

Jean Dubuc arrived here today and corroborated the testimony given by the jury by "Rube" Benton. He said he received a telegram from Hal Chase, telling him to bet on Cincinnati and that he told Burns about it. Burns investigated in Cincinnati, Dubuc said, and then telegraphed him that the tip was straight.

PLAYERS TO FIGHT CHARGES

BY JAMES L. KILGALLEN.
(United News Staff Correspondent.)

Chicago, October 4.—When the grand jury, which turned up the baseball scandal, resumes its investigation Tuesday it will give four White Sox players against whom indictments have been voted, an opportunity to vindicate themselves.

Eddie Collins, second baseman, Buck Weaver, Fred McMullin, "Swede" Risberg, and "Happy" Felsch—have employed an attorney, Thomas D. Nash—and propose to fight their way back into major league baseball.

The import of grand jury revelations is just beginning to dawn on some of the indicted players.

Of the eight so-called "Benedict Arnold" four have given up all hope of ever again wearing a ball uniform. They have conformed their opinion to that of baseball men and fans from Maine to California.

In the words of Dan Leary, veteran ball player, who turned over the grand jury room, amazed at several of the "confessors" entered, they "can't win away their shirt."

They know it. They are Eddie Clotte, Joe Jackson, Claude Williams and "Chick" Gandil.

The other four are hoping against hope.

Weaver is hopeful.

When seen Sunday, Weaver was a slight, so to speak. He went motorizing home with his wife. The old familiar smile was sickly, a little brave, perhaps, and his face was wan. He tried to act nonchalantly. He has had some stage experience, too, having played vaudeville during the winter months with his wife, who was an actress when he married her.

He looked much as he did the other day when he entered from Comiskey's office with his head down. "Buck" still thinks, or says he does, that he will be reinstated.

Felsch is in Wisconsin, fishing, and has left activities for his defense in Weaver's hands. Felsch is of an easy-going, happy-go-lucky type.

Risberg is in Chicago, defiant and disclaiming any connivance with gamblers. He shows up at a restaurant on the south side almost every evening. He says he made Joe Jackson apologize for saying he would kill him.

McMullin looks straight.

McMullin is the last chap in the world a character judge would suspect of being crooked. He has a clean-cut, open face, with honest, dark brown eyes and closely cropped brown hair, which he combs straight back like the college type of ball player. He is as uncommunicative as Risberg.

Eddie Clotte is said to be in Detroit with his family, penniless and depressed. None of the other players has taken the disgrace as hard as the former Sox pitcher, since the day he confessed he tried to sneak into the jury room, unknown to newspaper men. When he left he went through a rear door that had not been used for years, and dashed down stairs in an attempt to avoid the reporters.

He was overtaken two floors below.

BONNIE DEL WINS WALNUT HALL TROPHY

Lexington, Ky., October 4.—Hard fought races featured the opening of today's Grand Circuit meetings here. Henry Oliver's Ross Scott landed an easy victory in the 2-year-old division of the Kentucky Futurity, but the Walnut Hall cup went four heats before Bonnie Del, owned and driven by Thomas Murphy, won two races, for in addition to Ross Scott, Esther R., driven by Cox, landed the 207 pace. This event also went four heats.

Just David won the first division of the 2:15 trot in straight heats. The one heat which could be raced in the second division of the 2:15 trot before sundown was won by Miss Del, driven by V. Fleming.

Peter Manning, favorite for the Walnut Hall cup, was scratched because of a slight lameness. Nelson Dillon was the pacemaker in the first heat of the 2-year-old Futurity. Rose Scott took the lead at the head of the stretch and handily won the race in 2:07 1/2. The last half was trotted in 1:01 1/2.

In the final heat Rose Scott was an easy winner, going the distance leading the entire mile. Harry Fleming sprang a surprise in the first heat of the 2-year-old Futurity and led all the way. Breaks on the part of Peter Manning, who had spoiled his chances, though he won the second and fastest heat. Bonnie Del was a handy winner in the third and fourth heats.

GAMBLERS TO RUN POOLS ON SERIES

BY JAMES L. KILGALLEN.
(United News Staff Correspondent.)

Chicago, October 4.—Ignoring the warning given by the grand jury investigating gamblers who coerced famous ball players to throw the last world's series, big betting syndicates are preparing to rake in a golden stream on pools during the 1920 diamond classic, the first game of which takes place Tuesday.

While the pools operate in practically all the largest cities, Chicago, at present, is considered an especially fertile field for this form of gambling.

Fully a score of big pools are running here. They include the Con-Strike, the Home Run, the Lucky Strike, the Great Western, the Citizens, the Fair Play, Derby, Blue Island, World Leader and Horseshoe. Many others are operated by individuals with an idea of cleaning up $50 or $100 a week among a limited clientele.

The consolidated—a big national pool—is said to be worth $500,000 a week to its owners.

As the series nears, the gamblers have passed the word among themselves that the time is ripe to make a "killing."

Silpa Printed.

During the active baseball season the names of all sixteen major league teams are printed on the forms used in pool gambling, but the new silpa printed for the 1920 world's series carries the names of the players on the Brooklyn and Cleveland teams. The basis of awarding the grand prize will be the total hits and runs made by each player in a game during the series.

Millions of these tickets are now being printed. Hundreds of thousands of them will be sold in Chicago and vicinity this week and next.

District Attorney Charles F. Clyne, seen by a United News reporter Monday, deplored this contention that the game is a "contaminating the youth of the nation," but he could promise no effective action against the pool gamblers unless proof was submitted to him or his agents that they were using their tickets in this way. He said, they would be violating the lottery law, otherwise the situation was up to the state authorities, here and elsewhere.

Grand Jury Inactive.

Just what the grand jury is doing about pool gambling could not be determined and probably will not be known until after the world's series. Officially, it has been stated that the jury was including baseball pools in its inquiry.

We are not overjoyed at the pool feature of baseball gambling," was the only comment State's Attorney MacKay made when asked about it.

Meanwhile the grand jury marked time awaiting the resumption Tuesday of the investigation, when John "Mugsy" McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, returns with the two players whom the inquiry wants to have in custody—Bennie Kauff and Fred Toney.

The state's attorney's office was concerned over a report late in the day that a man named Brown, believed to be the Brown of New York indicted with "Sport" Sullivan, one of the gamblers in the baseball scandal, had fled to Europe.

BETTER THAN WHISKEY FOR COLDS AND FLU

New Elixir, Called Aspirinal, Medicated With Latest Scientific Remedies, Used and Indorsed by European and American Army Surgeons to Cut Short a Cold and Prevent Complications.

Every Druggist in U. S. Instructed to Refund Price While You Wait at Counter If Relief Does Not Come Within Two Minutes.

Delightful Taste, Immediate Relief, Quick Warm-Up.

The sensation of the year in the drug trade is Aspirinal, the two-minute cold and cough remedy, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically indorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rook and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are now supplied with the wonderful new elixir, so all you have to do to get rid of that cold is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar and he will give you Aspirinal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonfuls with four teaspoonfuls of water in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel your cold fading away like a dream within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for a druggist will invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

When your cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and babies. Aspirinal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for infants and children.—(adv.)

Cadets Are Organized.

Americus, Ga., October 4.—(Special.)—The organization of the cadet corps of Americus High school has been completed, and officers for the ensuing year chosen. These are Captain T. J. Wallis, Jr., first lieutenant, Nell Hodges; second lieutenant, Alpheus Gastellou; sergeant, Eugene Gammage, William Fetter and Edward Stokes; right guide, Ralph Glover; left guide, Courtney Ivey. Principal C. M. Hale is commander of the cadets.

Dreaded to Work

"I Felt Weak and Tired" Writes Tennessean, Who Says He "Feels Fine" After Taking Ziron.

HOW about your BLOOD? Does it lack iron? Are you pale, weak, anemic? If so, better do something about it. Take ZIRON Iron Tonic.

ZIRON is a tonic for your blood and nerves. It will help to build up your general system, strengthen your muscles and tone up fagged nerves.

Thousands have found ZIRON beneficial.

After Mr. John Grant of Route 1, Nicta, Tenn., had taken ZIRON, he wrote the following:

"I was all run-down, had no appetite, and when I went to eat I would get sick. I felt weak and tired. It was a dread to me to go to work. I went to the store and got ZIRON, took it according to directions, and got better right straight. I have just commenced taking another bottle. Am feeling fine. If Mr. Grant hadn't noticed an improvement in his condition after trying a bottle of ZIRON, he could have recovered the money that he paid for it.

So can you.

All reliable druggists sell ZIRON under a money-back guarantee. Try ZIRON.

A Suggestion

To our out-of-town Customers and Friends: When you come to the Southeastern Fair, October 16 to 26, or any other time on business, and need glasses or our advice, come to us direct on arrival. Do not put it off until the last thing, as we positively refuse to sell you glasses unless we have sufficient time to test your eyes as they should be. This is absolutely necessary in order to give you satisfaction, and for us to retain our reputation. Our service is worth all you pay for it. Ask any one who has tried it.

Many a Pretty Face Spoiled by Pimples

Don't close your eyes to the warning which nature gives, when unsightly pimples appear on your face and other parts of the body.

Not only are these pimples and blotches disfiguring, but they lead to serious skin diseases that spread and cause the most discomforting irritation and pain. Sometimes they forestall Eczema, boils, blisters, scaly eruptions and other annoyances that burn like flames of fire, and make you feel that your skin is ablaze.

When these symptoms appear in any part of the body, take prompt steps to rid the blood of these disorders. And the one remedy which has no equal as a blood cleanser is S.S.S., the purely vegetable blood medicine, which has been on the market for more than fifty years. It is sold by druggists everywhere.

If you are afflicted with this form of skin disease do not expect to be cured by lotions, dintments, salves and other local remedies, as they can not possibly reach the source of the trouble, which is in the blood. Begin taking S.S.S. today, and write a complete history of your case to our chief medical adviser who will give you special instructions, without charge. Write at once to Medical Director, 527 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Ginning Figures Low.

Waynesboro, Ga., October 4.—(Special.)—The ginning report for cotton ginned in Burke county up to September 25 gives the number of bales ginned for the same period last year the county had ginned 25,000. The total crop for the county last year was 37,000 bales.

Farmers say now that there will hardly be a thirty-thousand-bale crop this year. The heavy reduction in the crop together with the low price is forcing the farmers in the section to turn their attention to hog raising. They are also planting more corn, peas and peanuts.

Price of Gardner Light Four will be reduced effective October First as follows: Touring Car and Roadster from Twelve Eighty Five to Eleven Ninety Five; Sedan, Twenty Three Forty Five to Twenty One Forty Five. This new price makes the Gardner Light Four the lowest priced car of its class in the world and the biggest value for the money on the market today. The Gardner Light Four is not a war product and has never had an inflated price. The manufacturer for the present will be selling at cost. The Gardner Motor Company has decided to make this reduction not because such a step is in any way justified by their present manufacturing conditions, but because they have recognized a wide-spread sentiment on the part of the American Public for a general reduction, and in anticipation of the co-operation of their source of supply desire to assist in an attempt to bring this about.
